Call for Papers

Special Issue on Accounting History

Special Editor

Dr. Aida Sy

Critical research draws on a tradition of openness to fresh perspectives and experience for its continuous re-invigoration. This special issue invites contributions that are inspired by critical accounting History. Contributors are invited to interpret this call for papers broadly; to draw on the diversity of their own historical and contemporary experiences, in order to present their own unique formulation of “critical”.

Welcome are submissions addressing all accounting history fields: Corporate Governance; tumultuous events in the eras of Inflation and Markets; Law/Regulations/Ethics; Globalization; Global warming; Gender/Behavioral Research; Public Interest; Taxation; Auditing; Fraud; Corruption; Sub prime crisis; Role of big corporation, archival research, empiricism .

The deadline for receipt of manuscripts is June 2009. Electronic copies of submissions should be in Word format, include name, address, email, telephone and FAX numbers of all authors (designating the corresponding author), and sent to: Dr. Aida Sy: Aida.sy@manhattan.edu and Prof Tony Tinker: Tony.tinker@baruch.cuny.edu

Call for Nominations Innovation in Accounting History Education The Academy of Accounting Historians

The Academy of Accounting Historians requests nominations for the award for innovation in accounting history education. The intent of the award is to encourage innovations in accounting history education. The award (a plaque) will be presented to an individual(s) who has developed and implemented an innovative technique/method for incorporating accounting history topics into undergraduate or graduate accounting courses.

Examples of innovative techniques/methods include, but are not limited to:

- Developing a case, video, audio; or
- Course syllabus, etc., that can be used to integrate accounting history topics into accounting courses.

To be eligible, the innovation must have been used in a course that the applicant has taught or is currently teaching. Individuals nominating themselves or those nominating individuals for this award should submit four copies of the following by 30 September, 2009 to the address shown below:

- A description of the innovative technique/method;
- Submission of the case, video, audio, or other innovation, as appropriate, and teaching notes;
- Identification of the course in which the innovation is used and a description of how it is implemented; and
- An explanation of how the innovation has enriched the accounting course being taught.

21st Annual Conference on ACCOUNTING, BUSINESS AND FINANCIAL HISTORY

at Cardiff University, 14-15 September 2009

ANNOUNCEMENT OF CONFERENCE AND CALL FOR PAPERS

Guest Speaker - Prof. Greg Waymire (Emory University, USA)

Theoretical, empirical and review papers are welcomed in all areas of accounting, business and financial history.

The conference provides delegates with the opportunity of presenting and discussing, in an informal setting, papers ranging from early working drafts to fully developed manuscripts. The format of the conference allows approximately 40 minutes for presentation and discussion in order to help achieve worthwhile feedback from those attending. In the past, many papers presented at Cardiff have subsequently appeared in print in Accounting, Business and Financial History, or in another of the full range of international, refereed academic accounting, business and economic history journals.

The 2009 conference, organised by Malcolm Anderson, will be held in the Glamorgan Building, Cardiff University, King Edward VII Avenue, Cardiff, CF10 3WA, UK. It will commence at lunchtime on Monday, 14 September 2009 and conclude in the late afternoon of Tuesday, 15 September 2009.

The conference fee is £125 (this includes all conference materials and the following meals: Monday - lunch, afternoon tea, wine reception and the conference dinner; Tuesday: morning coffee, lunch and afternoon tea). All delegates will need to make their own accommodation arrangements (a list of nearby hotel options can be found on the conference website - www.cf.ac.uk/carbs/conferences/abfhc09/index.html).

Those wishing to offer papers to be considered for presentation at the conference should send an abstract (not exceeding 1 page) by 1 June 2009 to:

Julie Mein, Cardiff Business School, Colum Drive, Cardiff, CF10 3EU.

Tel +44 (0)29 2087 5731 Fax +44 (0)29 2087 5129

Email. Carbs-Conference@cf.ac.uk

Following the refereeing process, applicants will be advised of the conference organisers' decision by 30 June 2009.

Part of the costs of this conference are being paid by the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England & Wales' charitable trusts. These trusts support educational projects relating to accountancy and economics. The Centre for Business Performance of the ICAEW manages all grant

Accounting History

The sixth Accounting History International Conference "Accounting and the State"

Wellington , New Zealand
18 - 20 August 2010

Sponsored by:
School of Accounting and Commercial Law,
Victoria University of Wellington and
Accounting History Special Interest Group of the Accounting and Finance Association of Australia and New Zealand

Papers will be accepted across the full range of accounting history topics and methodological and theoretical perspectives. As the conference is taking place in a national capital city, authors are encouraged to think about the relationships between the State and accounting, such as:

- Accounting in the public sector at the national, sub-national and local levels;
- New public financial management;
- Taxation and public finance;
- Regulation of the profession and standard setting process;
- The State and accounting in social institutions;
- Accounting education and the State;
- Regulation of the not-for-profit sector;
- Regulation of corporate governance, fraud and collapse;
- Comparisons between the public and private sectors;
- Accounting, politics and public policy.
- Accounting reforms and their implications for inter-generational equity;
- The roles, influence and impacts of transnational State-like organisations, such as the EU.

An Accounting History Doctoral Colloquium will be held as part of the event
