Academy and American Accounting Association Reach Agreement

Upon approval of the AAH's Officers and Trustees and the leadership of the American Accounting Association a nonexclusive memorandum of understanding was reached between the two organizations.

Memorandum of Understanding

Between

Academy of Accounting Historians

and

American Accounting Association

1. The Academy of Accounting Historians (AAH) and the American Accounting Association (AAA) desiring to develop academic exchange and cooperation in teaching and research in the furtherance of the advancement and dissemination of learning agree as follows:
 - 1.1. To encourage visits from one organization to the other by members for the purpose of participating in organizational annual meetings and programs.
 - 1.2. To offer admission from one organizational annual meeting to the other for a designated member of the governing boards (e.g. the president or the president's designee).
 - 1.3. To encourage the exchange of research materials, publications, and information.
 - 1.4. To prepare, as necessary, a working program detailing the specific form and content of cooperation.
 2. While each organization will retain their respective identity and status, the MOU encourages cooperative efforts between the AAA and the AAH and is non-binding and non-exclusive, seeking to support and advance knowledge of our academic discipline, broadly defined.
 3. The Institutions agree to review this agreement after five years from the date hereof. It may be terminated at any time by mutual consent or by three months' notice by either party.
