Dear James,

May I send you a greeting from Scotland whose only topicality is that I am leaving for U.S.A. next Tuesday to spend a fortnight, mainly in Washington and New York.

The University of Missouri has given "The Scotsman" a "Medal of Honor" for what they believe to be some journalistic prowess and I shall be there on May 3rd to collect it. It would be very pleasant if you were anywhere I might be and just in the freakish off-chance I expect to be in Taft Hotel, New York, May 1st to 8th, Madison Hotel, ~~New York~~, 8th to 10th, Taft again 10th to 14th, with an intervention in the Daniel Boone Hotel, Missouri, May 4th.

In spite of difficulties I hope that you are all flourishing ^{Columbia} as the big white father cut you off without a shilling!

My wife is coming with me but will stay mainly in New York to discuss some business with her publishers.

Yours sincerely,

Alastair
