In Re: Painting, portrait of General Edmund Pendleton Gaines by Jarvis.

Dear Professor Silver:

I much appreciated your reply to my letter of July 26th.
I was sorry to learn of your illness, and trust that you are now fully recovered.

Dr. B. I. Wiley evidently communicated to President Herbert
E. Longenecker, as the latter wrote me August 13th.

Meanwhile the curator of our Fort Worth Art Museum, has become interest in the painting of my great-great uncle and in four other paintings and sketches by important painters of the early 1800's. Our curator states that we are decidedly lacking in representative artists of this "Early American" period.

I have written President Longenecker that I shall keep in mind his interest in the painting.

Sincerely, Newton Gaines
(Samuel) Newton Gaines
