Dear Mr. Meredith,

It is with complete spiritual and patriotic consolation that I read and hear reports daily of your courage, your dedication to liberty and everything for which it stands, and the zeal of patriotism as a true American which you have displayed. You are to be admired for your personal responsibility in fighting for freedom as our great forefathers fought a century ago. You are a leader in the "new birth of freedom" of which Abraham Lincoln spoke in his Gettysburg Address. Thank you, Jim. May God bless you and grant beneficial results to your endeavors.

Sincerely,
A fellow American College Student.
