Gentlemen:

Definite progress in acquainting the general public with the scope and value of the services of the public accountant is an outstanding accomplishment of the Institute through its Bureau of Public Affairs.

This committee hopes that it may have an expression of your co-operation in furthering this splendid work being carried on under the able direction of Mr. Homer S. Pace, Chairman of the Committee on Public Affairs.

If your subscription is intended to represent the combined subscriptions of members and associates of the Institute in your organization, we shall be pleased if you will furnish us a list of their names thereby avoiding solicitation of them as individuals.

Yours very truly

Chairman.
