Accounting Historians Notebook

Volume 38
Number 1 April 2015

April 2015

Accounting Historians Journal on Scopus

Academy of Accounting Historians

Massimo Sargiacomo

Follow this and additional works at: https://egrove.olemiss.edu/aah_notebook

Part of the Accounting Commons, and the Taxation Commons

Recommended Citation
Available at: https://egrove.olemiss.edu/aah_notebook/vol38/iss1/1

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Archival Digital Accounting Collection at eGrove. It has been accepted for inclusion in Accounting Historians Notebook by an authorized editor of eGrove. For more information, please contact egrove@olemiss.edu.
It’s my pleasure to announce that at the beginning of 2015 the Academy’s submission for inclusion of The Accounting Historians Journal in the Scopus database was accepted.

The Scopus Content Selection & Advisory Board (CSAB) expressed the following appreciation:

“This is a very important journal in the field and is very well cited.”

The back-fill of past articles starting from 2014 has already been completed and, by so doing, it is hoped that the journal will achieve greater attention by research evaluation agencies, universities, and authors. Meanwhile, the internationally known Association of Business Schools’ (ABS) Academic Journal Guide 2015 issued on February 25, 2015, listed The Accounting Historians Journal, Accounting History and Accounting History Review all at level 2, with other well-known and respected journals. The listing on Scopus was one of the main goals on my presidential agenda, as portrayed at the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh at the end of 2013. This victory, repays both past and present AHJ Editors, and past and present Presidents, trustees and staff, as well as the entire AHJ-AAH broad community – for the efforts undertaken in the last years and decades.

I hope that this prestigious achievement assists in increasing the visibility and awareness of the glorious history of AHJ and AAH!

Massimo Sargiacomo
President of the Academy of Accounting Historians