ARKANSAS COUNCIL ON HUMAN RELATIONS

1220 WEST CAPITOL
LITTLE ROCK, ARK.
PHONE FR 4-4521

December 4, 1963

Dr. James W. Silver
Department of History
College of Liberal Arts
University of Mississippi
Oxford, Mississippi

Dear Dr. Silver:

We are grateful to you for coming to see us. We do trust the expenditure of energy was not too heavy.

As you indicated, I had hoped you would speak to our "oughtness" in Little Rock, e.i. the concept of the "open society", but your exposure of the complete bankruptcy of the white supremists, for our audience, was very fruitful and seems to have had affirmative results. The meeting was good for our public relations: some influential "moderates" were present for the first time and enjoyed your speech.

Am enclosing blurb sheet on NAIRO. This outfit keeps up with people working in the area of human relations, jobs, etc. Fred Routh, formerly with SRC, is the current Executive Secretary. Their occasional newsletter lists employment openings in the field. Some good ones. Not so many in the South!

Thanks again.

Sincerely,

Nat R. Griswold
