OFFICE—COMMITTEE ON ANNUAL MEETING

812 UNION CENTRAL BUILDING

CINCINNATI, OHIO

July 1, 1919.

Mr. Henry A. Niles,
N. Y.

Dear Mr. Niles:-

The Annual convention of the American Institute of Accountants will be held September 15-16-17 in Cincinnati at the Hotel Sinton.

The Accountants of Ohio have long looked forward to the time when they might have the honor and pleasure of entertaining the Institute. They were delighted when the Institute decided to meet in Cincinnati this year, particularly, in view of the fact that this will be the first meeting held outside of Washington, since the change in our Organization. They are anxious to do everything in their power to make the meeting the most successful in the history of the Organization.

Cincinnati is one of the best convention cities in America. Her central location makes it possible for a maximum attendance at a minimum of time and expense. Her many places of interest and her unexcelled convention facilities assures a comfortable and pleasant visit.

The program now being arranged for the meeting, will, we believe, be one of the most interesting the Organization has ever had. Full details covering the program will be sent you in a subsequent notice.

Make up your mind now to be in Cincinnati on September 15th, 16th and 17th.

Cordially yours,

CHAIRMAN.
