MEMBER AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF ACCOUNTANTS

Answered

September 7, 1923.

To Members of the American Institute of Accountants.

The annual meeting of the American Institute of Accountants will be held in Washington, D. C., on September 18th-19th, 1923.

Among the officers to be elected at the meeting are seven members to the Council of the Institute. We ask your support for an independent candidate for one of these memberships.

We intend to place in nomination from the floor, at the meeting, the name of

FREDERICK G. COLLEY, of New York for member of the Council. We do this not only by reason of our personal friendship for Mr. Colley, but because we believe him to be in every way qualified for the office.

Actively and personally engaged in public accounting practice in England and the United States for nearly thirty years; now partner in the firm of Arthur Young & Company, nationally known; for many years an active member of the New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants and of the American Institute of Accountants; of unquestioned professional ability, he lacks no qualification for the dignity of Member of the Council.

If elected he will bring to the Council a wealth of experience, broad vision, consistent application, good judgment and progressive ideas.
A public practitioner without self-advertising, he has won distinction in his chosen profession and is worthy of your support and vote.

If you attend the meeting vote for Mr. Colley. If you do not intend to be at the meeting, will you sign the proxy enclosed and return it to me, so that your vote at the meeting may be recorded in his favor? Inasmuch as one member can only vote five proxies will you please leave the name of the proxy blank?

Yours faithfully,
EDWARD A. McALLISTER
