Henry A. Niles, Esq.,

New York.

Dear Mr. Niles:

About this time of the year one of the duties of the Institute is to make preparation for the papers which are to be read at the annual meeting.

After consultation with the president of the Institute I have been directed to write and ask you if you would consent to prepare and read a paper at the annual meeting to be held September 18 and 19, 1923, on some subject most congenial to you.

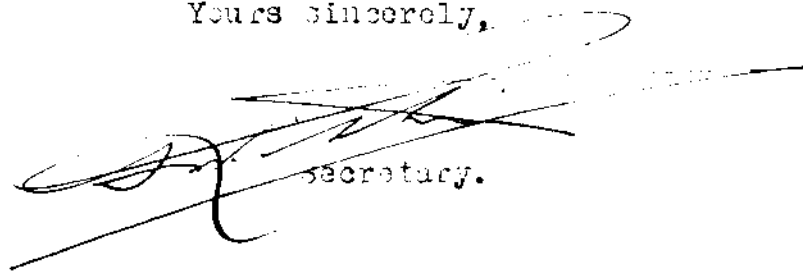

The length of the papers is usually about one-half hour, but that is a matter which rests entirely with the writers.

The president hopes that you will consent to come to the assistance of the Institute in this matter and that you will give us the title of your paper as early as possible so that the necessary announcement may be made.

If you care to discuss any details with me I shall be glad to call upon you at your convenience.

On behalf of the president and the Institute I extend thanks in advance.

Yours sincerely,

Secretary.

Mr. A. P. Richardson,

Secretary, American Institute of Accountants,

135 Cedar Street, New York, N. Y.

Dear Mr. Richardson,

Referring to your letter of the 2nd instant, I regret to advise you that it will not be possible for me to prepare and read a paper at the annual meeting to be held next September.

Regretting the necessity of making this decision,

I am

Yours truly,
