Dear Jim:

Happy to have Rands' stuff. Will publish it probably next week, Tuesday through Friday, dividing it into four parts as already has been done. It will do no good at all, will convince nobody, but it fits with Chronicle policy and I am honored to have the opportunity to give it birth in our pages.

Washington, D.C. Need a bit more biography on Rands. ⁴⁰ How old? Native of where? How long at Ole Miss? Send a photo.

1952 Will let you know before hand ~~when~~ definitely when I'll publish the article. After I see it in type I may want to make two installments, or three, instead of four.

I will have the reprints made for you on newsprint, if that's okay, and there will be no charge. I'll save the page mats and do it from them, which will not be a costly operation.

Meanwhile, I'm burdening you with some reading material. The enclosed are reproductions of my editorials -- starting with Sept. 14, the day after Barnett's murder announcement that have brought me hate, boycotts and a couple of gun shots, and the good ole FBI in to investigate possible violation of my civil rights. C'est la niggerloving!

Regards,

Ihr
