JUDY ROONEY AND LOONEY CONNOR.

AIR—"Nancy Dawson."

Och, Judy Rooney, neat and tight,
Twas she first gave my heart delight,
In bed I staid awake at night,

A thinking of her beauty—
For oh! her eyes such conquest draws,
That she has gain'd the world's applause,
And Judy plays with hearts like straws,
With which, a knot but few tie!

Resolved to speak my mind, one day,
I sought Miss Rooney where she lay,
Reclining on a cock of hay,

Her cheeks so rosy red, gra-
Says I, Och! Judy give relief,
For love, that universal thief,
Has nearly killed myself with grief

Unless with me you'll wed, gra-
The live long night the ne'er a wink,
I get, but still of you I think,—
Since sorrow's dry, myself must drink

Then bid not Looney part you-
For since my heart to you has flown,
My night-cap it has useless grown,
So e'en take that, they're both your own,

My night-cap and my heart too-
With that the soul she smiled to hear,
Her lovely self, to me was dear,
And Judy's smile brought hope to cheer,

The faithful heart of Looney-
Upon the hay I bent my knee,
Your night-cap you may keep, says she-
But t'other trifle leave with me,

Your own true Judy Rooney
So then I threw my cap at care,
And, no one but ourselves being there,
I just made bold to kiss the fair,

While blushes crowded on her.
With down-cast eyes, she sigh'd a pow'r,
She own'd—of youths I was the flow'r,
And Judy Rooney from that hour,
Is Mrs. Looney Connor.
