Dear Mr. Niles:

The annual meeting of the American Institute of Accountants will be held September 20-21-22 in Washington, D. C., at the New Willard Hotel.

Business will be the dominant note of the meeting; for these are active times in the accounting profession. You should spare the time for the meeting because of the information and knowledge to be acquired, for the inspiration you must receive from the interchange of ideas, the contact established with the profession, and the acquaintances formed with other practitioners. This is especially valuable to the recently admitted members and associates.

It is hoped that there will be an exceptionally large attendance this year and you are requested to make an earnest effort to attend the meeting. The business matters that come up and the election of the council and officers are voted upon by the members present, so it is important that you attend to participate in the proceedings.

The time outside of the business session hours will have its entertainment features and attractions; and during the business session hours plans have been matured for the entertainment of the lady guests. In view of the local trips available, success is virtually assured.

It is advisable that the members make their reservations with the hotel early. Please fill out the enclosed addressed postal card and mail to the New Willard Hotel. So that adequate plans and arrangements can be made, will you please fill out and mail promptly to the Committee the enclosed addressed stamped postal card.

Please assist to make a record-breaking attendance.

Yours very truly,

Chairman.
