CHECKLISTS AND ILLUSTRATIVE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR HEALTH AND WELFARE BENEFIT PLANS

.01 The checklists and illustrative financial statements included in this section have been developed by the staff of the Technical Information Division of the AICPA as nonauthoritative technical practice aids. Readers should be aware of the following:

- The checklists and illustrative financial statements do not include all disclosures and presentation items promulgated. Pronouncements deemed remote for Audits of Health and Welfare Benefit Plans are not included in this document.
- The checklists and illustrative financial statements are “tools” and in no way represent official positions or pronouncements of the AICPA.
- The checklists have been updated to include relevant pronouncements through AICPA Statement on Auditing Standards No. 74, FASB Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 121, FASB Interpretation No. 41, FASB Technical Bulletin No. 94-1, AICPA Statement of Position No. 95-1, AICPA Audit and Accounting Guide, Audits of Employee Benefit Plans (with conforming changes as of May 1, 1995), AICPA Practice Bulletin No. 13, and EITF consensuses adopted up to and including the March 23, 1995, Emerging Issues Task Force meeting. The checklists and illustrative financial statements should be modified, as appropriate, for subsequent pronouncements. In determining the applicability of a pronouncement, its effective date should also be considered.
- The checklists and illustrative financial statements should be used by, or under the supervision of, persons having adequate technical training and proficiency in the application of generally accepted accounting principles and generally accepted auditing standards.
- The checklists and illustrative financial statements do not represent minimum requirements. The referenced standards should be reviewed if clarification is needed to determine whether the disclosure indicated is required or suggested, and to what extent each disclosure is relevant to the statements being presented.

.02 Users of the financial checklists and illustrative financial statements are urged to refer directly to applicable authoritative pronouncements when appropriate. If you have further questions, call the AICPA Technical Hotline.

Note: This publication was extracted from sections 26,000 through 26,500 of the AICPA Financial Statement Preparation Manual (FSP).
FSP Section 26,100

Introduction

Description

.01 Employee benefit plans include defined benefit pension plans, defined contribution pension plans, and health and welfare benefit plans. Health and welfare benefit plans include plans that provide:

- Medical, dental, visual, psychiatric, or long-term health care; life insurance (offered separately from a pension plan); certain severance benefits; or accidental death or dismemberment benefits.
- Benefits for unemployment, disability, vacations, or holidays.
- Other benefits such as apprenticeships, tuition assistance, day care, dependent care, housing subsidies, or legal services.

.02 Defined-benefit health and welfare plans specify a determinable benefit, which may be in the form of a reimbursement to the covered plan participant or a direct payment to providers or third-party insurers for the cost of specified services. Such plans may also include benefits that are payable in a lump sum, such as death benefits. The level of benefits may be defined or limited based on factors such as age, years of service, and salary. Contributions may be determined by the plan's actuary or be based on actual claims paid or other factors determined by the plan's sponsor. Even when a plan is funded pursuant to agreements that specify a fixed rate of employer contributions (e.g., a collectively bargained multiemployer plan), such a plan may nevertheless be a defined-benefit health and welfare plan if its substance is to provide a defined benefit.

.03 Defined-contribution health and welfare plans maintain an individual account for each plan participant. They have terms that specify the means of determining the contributions to participants' accounts, rather than the amount of benefits the participants are to receive. The benefits of a plan participant are limited to the amount contributed to the participant's account, investment experience, expenses, and any forfeitures allocated to the participant's account. These plans also include flexible spending arrangements.

.04 Plan participants may be active or terminated employees (including retirees), as well as covered dependents and beneficiaries, of a single employer or group of employers. Employer contributions may be voluntary or required under the terms of a collective bargaining agreement negotiated with one or more labor organizations. Plans may require contributions from employers and participants (contributory plans) or from employers only (noncontributory plans). During periods of unemployment, a noncontributory plan may require contributions by participants to maintain their eligibility for benefits. Benefits may be provided through insurance contracts paid for by the plan (an insured plan), from net assets accumulated in a trust established by the plan (a self-funded plan), or both.

.05 A health and welfare plan may process benefit payments directly or it may retain a third-party administrator. In either case, a plan that is fully or partially self-funded is obligated for the related benefits.

Regulatory Requirements

.06 The Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA) provides for substantial federal government oversight of the operating and reporting practices of employee benefit plans. Under ERISA, the Department of Labor (DOL) and the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) have the authority to issue regulations covering reporting and disclosure requirements.

.07 ERISA generally requires that the administrator of an employee benefit plan prepare and file various documents with the DOL, the IRS, and the PBGC. The report of most significance to the auditor is the annual Financial Accounting and Reporting Standards

.08 The AICPA Statement of Position (SOP) 92-6, Accounting and Reporting by Health and Welfare Benefit Plans, establishes generally accepted accounting principles for health and welfare benefit plans. The AICPA Audit and Accounting Guide, Audits of Employee Benefit Plans, provides guidance on auditing and reporting on the financial statements of employee benefit plans. Plans that have adopted the provisions of SOP 92-6 (see the transition section below) should follow the accounting and disclosure requirements set forth in chapter 4A of the AICPA Audit and Accounting Guide, Audits of Employee Benefit Plans. Plans that have not adopted the provisions of SOP 92-6 (see the transition section below) should follow the accounting and disclosure requirements set forth in chapter 4B of the guide.

.09 The AICPA Statement of Position (SOP) 94-4, Reporting of Investment Contracts Held by Health and Welfare Benefit Plans and Defined- Contribution Pension Plans, specifies the accounting and reporting for health and welfare plans for investment contracts. This SOP is effective for financial statements for plan years beginning after December 15, 1994, except that the application of this SOP to investment contracts entered into before December 31, 1993, is delayed to plan years beginning after December 15, 1995.

.10 FASB Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 35, Accounting and Reporting by Defined Benefit Pension Plans, does not apply to health and welfare benefit plans. However, the methods of valuing plan investments and the requirements for financial statement disclosures are generally the same as those specified in SFAS 35.

Accounting and Reporting by Health and Welfare Benefit Plans

.11 The financial statements of a defined-benefit health and welfare plan prepared in accordance with GAAP should be prepared on the accrual basis and should include the following:

- A statement of net assets available for benefits as of the end of the plan year.
- A statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year then ended.
- Information regarding the plan’s benefit obligations as of the end of the plan year.
- Information regarding the effects, if significant, of certain factors affecting the year-to-year change in the plan’s benefit obligations.

.12 Information regarding the benefit obligations may be presented on the face of one or more financial statements. Note disclosure is not appropriate.

.13 The financial statements of a defined-contribution health and welfare plan prepared in accordance with GAAP should be prepared on the accrual basis and should include the following:

- A statement of net assets available for benefits of the plan as of the end of the plan year.
- A statement of changes in net assets available for benefits of the plan for the year then ended.

.14 Because a defined-contribution plan’s obligation to provide benefits is limited to the amounts accumulated in an individual’s account, information regarding benefit obligations is not applicable.

.15 Plan investments should be reported at their fair value except a defined-contribution health and welfare plan should report investment contracts with fully benefit-responsive features (as defined in SOP 94-4) at contract value and assets used in the administration of the plan are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and amortization.
.16 Whether or not a plan is subject to ERISA, insurance contracts are to be included in plan assets in the manner required by ERISA's annual reporting requirements and are to be reported in a manner consistent with the requirements of DOL Form 5500 or 5500-C.

.17 In addition to the reporting requirements of SOP 92-6 (and chapters 4A and 4B of the AICPA Audit and Accounting Guide, Audits of Employee Benefit Plans, as appropriate) health and welfare benefit plans may have reporting requirements under ERISA. Schedules required by ERISA include assets held for investment purposes, transactions with parties in interest, loans or fixed-income obligations due that are in default or uncollectible, leases in default or uncollectible, and reportable transactions.

Transition

.18 SOP 92-6 is effective for audits of financial statements of single employer plans for plan years beginning after December 15, 1992, except that the application of SOP 92-6 to plans of single employers with no more than 500 participants in the aggregate is effective for plan years beginning after December 15, 1994. SOP 92-6 is effective for audits of financial statements of multiemployer plans for plan years beginning after December 15, 1995. Earlier application is encouraged.

Note: If the benefit plan has not yet adopted SOP 92-6, all applicable questions in the checklist should be completed except those marked with an asterisk (*). If the benefit plan has adopted SOP 92-6, all applicable questions in the checklist should be completed.

Checklists—General

.01 Many auditors and accountants find it helpful to use checklists as practice aids in the preparation of financial statements and reports. Some firms have developed their own checklists for internal use and may also have specialized checklists to meet the needs of their practices, such as checklists for clients in particular industries or clients that report to the SEC. Some state CPA societies have developed checklists as practice aids that may be available to other practitioners, as well as to their own members. Some commercial publishers also include checklists in certain of their publications. However, authoritative literature does not require the use of such checklists, nor does it prescribe their format or content, which may vary.

.02 Checklists typically consist of a number of brief questions or statements that are accompanied by references to Statements on Auditing Standards, Statements of Financial Accounting Standards, Accounting Principles Board Opinions, Accounting Research Bulletins, AICPA Statements of Position, and EITF consensuses. Some checklists also include references to FASB Interpretations and the AICPA Audit and Accounting Guides. The extent of detail included in checklists varies with the judgment of the preparers on how extensively to refer to and highlight authoritative literature without developing a checklist that is too long and unwieldy. Accordingly, checklists may serve as convenient memory aids but cannot be used as a substitute for direct reference to the authoritative literature.

.03 Checklists usually provide for checking off or initialling each question or point to show that it has been considered. The format used herein is a typical one; it provides for "yes," "no," and "not applicable" answers and presumes that remarks would be prepared on separate cross-referenced memorandums. Some preparers, however, prefer to include space for remarks in the body of the checklist, while others prefer alternative checklist formats. For example, a checklist format may provide for the following set of answers: "not applicable," "not material," "in statements," and "in notes" (with provisions for indicating a cross-reference to the specific statement caption or note). Another format may provide for only two answers, "disclosed" and "not applicable." Firms and practitioners who develop their own checklists should adopt formats that suit their needs and preferences.

.04 Checklists are generally accompanied by caveats that include all of the following points:

- Use of the checklists requires the exercise of individual professional judgment and may likely require some modification based on the circumstances of individual engagements.

- The checklists are not all-inclusive and are not intended to present minimum requirements.

- Users need to modify the checklists for any pronouncements issued subsequent to those mentioned in the checklist.

.05 If widespread circulation is expected, the preparers also generally stress the nonauthoritative or unofficial status of the checklists and disclaim responsibility for the way they may be used.

H. Related-Party Transactions
1. Do the financial statements include a description of any agreements and transactions with persons known to be parties-in-interest?
   [AAG, A.51c]
   Note: ERISA defines a party-in-interest generally as any fiduciary or employee of the plan, any person who provides services to the plan, an employer whose employees are covered by the plan, an employee association whose members are covered by the plan, a person who owns 50% or more of such an employer or employee association, or relatives of a person described above.

6. Do disclosures include material lease commitments and other commitments?
   [AAG, par. 4.51; SOP 92-6, par. 51]

4. For those unusual or infrequent events or transactions identified in step 3.3 above, do disclosures include the effects of such events or transactions, if reasonably determinable, or the reasons why such effects are not reasonably determinable?
   - AAG, pars. 4.51 and 4.87H; SOP 92-6, par. 51

M. Financial Instruments (General—see also steps for specific areas)

Note: In addition to requiring disclosures about derivative financial instruments, SFAS 119 amends existing disclosure requirements of SFAS 105 and SFAS 107. For plans with less than $150 million in total assets in the current "Statement of Net Assets Available for Benefits," the effective date of SFAS 119 is for financial statements issued for fiscal years ending after December 15, 1995. However, earlier application is encouraged. The SFAS 119 amendments to SFAS 105 and SFAS 107 disclosures are reflected below. If the plan has not adopted SFAS 119, follow the guidance set forth in the footnotes to the applicable disclosure items. See section N., "Derivatives," for SFAS 119 disclosures for derivative financial instruments.

1. For financial instruments with off-balance-sheet credit risk (except for those excluded in SFAS 105 (AC F25)), are the following disclosed, either in the body of the financial statements or in the notes, by category of financial instrument:

   2 Category of financial instrument refers to class of financial instrument, business activity, risk, or other category that is consistent with the management of those instruments. If disaggregation of financial instruments is other than by class, the plan should also describe for each category the classes of financial instruments included in that category. Practices for grouping and separately identifying—classifying—similar financial instruments in statements of financial position, in notes to financial statements, and in various regulatory reports have developed and become generally accepted, largely without being codified in authoritative literature. In SFAS 105 (AC F25), “class of financial instrument” refers to those classifications.

   3 If the plan has not adopted SFAS 119, the word category in Steps 1. and 3. should be changed to class. Furthermore, the description of category and the requirement to disclose the classes of financial instruments included in each category if disaggregation of financial instruments is other than by class (described in footnote 2 to Step 1.) and the requirement to distinguish between financial instruments held or issued for trading purposes and those held or issued for purposes other than trading (described in Step 2.) should be disregarded.
a. The face or contract amount (or notional principal amount if there is no face or contract amount)?

b. The nature and terms, including, at a minimum, a discussion of:
   (1) The credit and market risk of those instruments?
   (2) The cash requirements of those instruments?
   (3) The related accounting policy pursuant to the requirements of APB 22 (AC A10)?
      [SFAS 105, par. 17 (AC F25.112); AAG, pars. 4.54 and 4.90; SOP 92-6, par. 54]

2. Do the disclosures noted in Steps 1a and b. distinguish between financial instruments with off-balance-sheet risk held or issued for trading purposes, including dealing and other trading activities measured at fair value with gains and losses recognized in earnings, and financial instruments with off-balance-sheet risk held or issued for purposes other than trading?
   [SFAS 105, par. 17 as amended by SFAS 119, par. 14(d) (AC F25.112A); AAG, pars. 4.54 and 4.90; SOP 92-6, par. 54]

3. For financial instruments with off-balance-sheet risk (except for those excluded in SFAS 105), are the following disclosed, either in the body of the financial statements or in the notes, by class of financial instrument:
   a. The amount of accounting loss the plan would incur if any party to the financial instrument failed completely to perform according to the terms of the contract and if the collateral or other security, if any, for the amount due proved to be of no value to the plan?
   b. The plan’s policy of requiring collateral or other security to support financial instruments subject to credit risk, information about the plan’s access to that collateral or other security, and the nature and a brief description of the collateral or other security supporting those financial instruments?
      [SFAS 105, par. 18 as amended by FASB 119, par. 14 (AC F25.113); AAG, pars. 4.54 and 4.90; SOP 92-6, par. 54]

4. Do disclosures of all significant concentrations of credit risk arising from all financial instruments, whether from an individual counterparty or groups of counterparties (except for certain insurance and investment contracts, purchase and pension obligations), include:
   a. Information about the (shared) activity, region, or economic characteristic that identifies the concentration?
   b. The amount of the accounting loss due to credit risk the plan would incur if parties to the financial instruments that make up the concentration failed completely to perform according to the terms of the contracts and the collateral or other security, if any, for the amount due proved to be of no value to the plan?
   c. The plan’s policy of requiring collateral or other security to support financial instruments subject to credit risk, information about the plan’s access to that collateral or other security, and the nature and a brief description of the collateral or other security supporting those financial instruments?
      [SFAS 105, par. 20 (AC F25.115); AAG, pars. 4.54 and 4.90; SOP 92-6, pars. 54 and 56]

NOTE: For plans with less than $150 million in total assets in the current "Statement of Net Assets Available for Benefits," the effective date for SFAS 107 disclosures is for financial statements issued for fiscal years ending after December 15, 1995. However, earlier application is encouraged.
5. Is the fair value of financial instruments for which it is practicable to estimate that value (except for those excluded in paragraphs 8 and 13 of SFAS 107), together with the related carrying amount in a form that makes it clear whether the fair value and carrying amount represent assets or liabilities and how the carrying amounts relate to what is reported in the “Statement of Net Assets Available for Benefits,” disclosed either in the body of the financial statements or in the accompanying notes? 4,5

SFAS 107, par. 10 as amended by SFAS 119, par. 115a-b (AC F25.115C); AAG, pars. 4.54, 4.55, 4.91 and 4.92; SOP 92.6, pars. 54 and 55

6. Do the disclosures noted in step 5 distinguish between financial instruments held or issued for trading purposes, including dealing and other trading activities measured at fair value with gains and losses recognized in earnings, and financial instruments held or issued for purposes other than trading? 5

SFAS 107, par. 10 as amended by SFAS 119, par. 15c (AC F25.115C)

7. Are the method(s) and significant assumptions used to estimate the fair value of financial instruments disclosed?

SFAS 107, par. 10 (AC F25.115C)

8. If it is not practicable to estimate the fair market value of a financial instrument, are the following disclosed:
   a. Information pertinent to estimating the fair value of the financial instrument or class of financial instruments, such as the carrying amount, effective interest rate, and maturity?

SFAS 107, par. 14 (AC F25.115J)

9. If the offsetting of derivative financial instruments against nonderivative financial instruments is not permitted under FASB Interpretation No. 39, Offsetting of Amounts Related to Certain Contracts, does the organization, in disclosing the fair value of a derivative financial instrument, not:
   a. Combine, aggregate, or net the fair value with the fair value of a nonderivative financial instrument?
   b. Net the fair value with the fair value of other derivative financial instruments?

SFAS 107, par. 13 as amended by SFAS 119, par. 15d (AC F25.115J)

10. For all fiscal years subsequent to the year of transition, are SFAS 105 and SFAS 107 disclosures included for each year for which a statement of financial position is presented for comparative purposes?

SFAS 105, par. 22; SFAS 107, par. 17

N. Derivatives (SFAS 119 is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years ending after December 15, 1994, except for entities with less than $150 million in total assets. For those plans, this Statement is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years ending after December 15, 1995)

1. For options held and other derivative financial instruments not within the scope of SFAS 105 that do not have off balance sheet risk, are the following disclosures made by category of financial instrument:
   a. The face or contract amount (or notional principal amount if there is no face or contract amount)?
   b. The nature and terms, including a discussion of:
      (1) Credit and market risk?
      (2) Cash requirements?
      (3) Related accounting policy as required by APB 22?

4 If disclosed in more than a single note, one of the notes should include a summary table containing the fair value and related carrying amounts and cross-references to the location(s) of the remaining disclosures required by SFAS 107, as amended.

5 If the plan has not adopted SFAS 119, the requirement to disclose related carrying amounts (described in Step 5.) and the disclosure requirements described in footnote 4 to Step 5, and in Steps 6. and 9. should be disregarded.
c. Do disclosures in Steps 1.a. and b. above distinguish between financial instruments held or issued for:
   (1) Trading purposes, including dealing and other trading activities measured at fair value with gains and losses recognized in earnings?
   (2) Purposes other than trading? [SFAS 119, pars. 8 and 9; AAG, pars. 4.56, 4.57, 4.93 and 4.94; SOP 92-6, pars. 56 and 57]

2. Does a plan that holds or issues derivative financial instruments for trading purposes disclose:
   a. The average fair value during the reporting period and the related end-of-period fair value, distinguishing between assets and liabilities?
   b. The net gains or losses (net trading revenue) arising from trading activities during the reporting period disaggregated by class, business activity, risk or other category consistent with management of those activities and where those net trading gains or losses are reported in the statement of changes in the net assets available for benefits:
      (1) If the disaggregation is other than by class, did the [entity] also disclose for each category the classes of derivative financial instruments, other financial instruments, and nonfinancial assets and liabilities from which the net trading gains and losses arose?
   c. The average fair value for assets and liabilities from the trading of other types of financial instruments or nonfinancial assets (this disclosure is encouraged but not required)? [SFAS 119, par. 10]

3. Does a plan that holds or issues derivative financial instruments for purposes other than trading disclose:
   a. A description of:
      (1) The objectives for holding or issuing?
      (2) The context needed to understand those objectives?
      (3) The strategies for achieving those objectives?
      (4) The classes of derivative financial instruments used?
   b. A description of how each class of derivative financial instrument is reported in the financial statements, including:
      (1) The policies for recognition and measurement or nonrecognition of the derivative financial instruments?
      (2) When recognized, where the instruments and related gains and losses are reported?
   c. For derivative financial instruments that are held or issued and accounted for as hedges of anticipated transactions, both firm and forecasted transactions for which there is no firm commitment, including:
      (1) A description of the anticipated transactions whose risks are hedged, including the expected time period of occurrence?
      (2) A description of the classes of derivative financial instruments used to hedge?
      (3) The amount of explicitly deferred hedging gains and losses?
      (4) A description of the transaction or events that result in the recognition in earnings of the deferred gains or losses? [SFAS 119, par. 11]

[SOP 119, pars. 12 and 13]

O. Risks and Uncertainties (SOP 94-6, Disclosure of Certain Significant Risks and Uncertainties, is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years ending after December 15, 1995, and for financial statements for interim periods in fiscal years subsequent to the year for which this SOP is to be first applied. Early application is encouraged but not required.)

[SOP 94-6, par. 11]

2. Is disclosure regarding an estimate made when known information available prior to the issuance of the financial statements indicates that the following criteria is met?

a. It is at least reasonably possible that the estimate of the effect on the financial statements of a condition, situation, or set of circumstances that existed at the date of the financial statements will change in the near term due to one or more future confirming events.

Note: Step 10 above does not apply to limited-scope audits pursuant to DOL Regulations 29 CFR section 2520.103-8. In these situations, see Step 7 above and AAG par. 13.25.

Note: Pursuant to DOL Reg. 29 CAR 2520.103-1(d), a plan that covers between 80 and 120 participants at the beginning of the plan year may elect to file the same report that was filed the previous year. Plans that file the Form 5500-C/R pursuant to the 80/120 rule are not required to have an audit of their financial statements.

b. Separate or combined statements of plan income and expenses and of changes in net assets?
   [AAG, App. A]

3. Pursuant to DOL regulations, are the following separate schedules included with the financial statements of the plan and covered by the auditor’s report:
   a. Investment assets (one schedule of assets held at plan year-end and one schedule of certain assets acquired and disposed of within the plan year) showing separate disclosure of the net realized gain or loss on sales of securities and the net unrealized appreciation (depreciation) of investments held?

   b. Non-exempt transactions with parties-in-interest?

   c. Loans or fixed income obligations that are in default or uncollectible?

   d. Leases in default or uncollectible?

      [AAG, Appendix A]
      Note: Plans filing their annual reports under the statutory method are required to report transactions that exceed 3 percent of the fair value of plan assets at the beginning of the year while plans that file pursuant to the alternative method of compliance prescribed in DOL regulations are required to report transactions that exceed 5 percent of the fair value of plan assets at the beginning of the year. For a new plan, the percentage amount applies to the initial contribution to the plan.

Illustrative Financial Statements

The following is an illustration of an auditor’s report with an unqualified opinion on the financial statements of an Employee Health and Welfare Benefit Plan assuming adoption of SOP 92—6.

.01 Independent Auditor’s Report

[Addressee]

We have audited the accompanying statements of net assets available for benefits of Allied Industries Benefit Plan as of December 31, 19X1 and 19X0, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year then ended, and statement of plan’s benefit obligations as of December 31, 19X1, and the related statement of changes in plan’s benefit obligations for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Plan’s management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial status of the plan as of December 31, 19X1 and 19X0, and the changes in its financial status for the year ended December 31, 19X1 in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

Supplemental Schedules Relating to ERISA and DOL Regulations

The following is an example of an additional paragraph required in the auditor’s report on supplemental schedules required by ERISA and DOL.

Our audit was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplemental schedules of [identify] are presented for the purpose of additional analysis and are not a required part of the basic financial statements but are supplementary information required by the Department of Labor’s Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. The supplemental schedules have been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, are fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.
Independent Auditor’s Report

We were engaged to audit the financial statements and supplemental schedules of Allied Industries Benefit Plan as of December 31, 19X1 and 19X0, and for the years then ended, as listed in the accompanying index. These financial statements and schedules are the responsibility of the Plan’s management.

As permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor’s Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, the plan administrator instructed us not to perform, and we did not perform, any auditing procedures with respect to the information summarized in Note X, which was certified by ABC Bank, the trustee of the Plan, except for comparing such information with the related information included in the financial statements and supplemental schedules. We have been informed by the plan administrator that the trustee holds the Plan’s investment assets and executes investment transactions. The plan administrator has obtained a certification from the trustee as of and for the years ended December 31, 19X1 and 19X0, that the information provided to the plan administrator by the trustee is complete and accurate.

Because of the significance of the information that we did not audit, we are unable to, and do not, express an opinion on the accompanying financial statements and schedules taken as a whole. The form and content of the information included in the financial statements and schedules, other than that derived from the information certified by the trustee or custodian, have been audited by us in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, in our opinion, are presented in compliance with the Department of Labor’s Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974.

Note 1: Description of Plan

The following description of the Allied Industries Benefit Plan (the Plan) provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan agreement for a complete description of the Plan’s provisions.

General. The Plan provides health and other benefits covering all participants in the widgets industry in the Greater Metropolis area. The Plan and related trust were established on May 8, 1966, pursuant to a collective bargaining agreement between the Allied Employers’ Trade Association and the Allied Union, Local 802. It is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), as amended.

Benefits. The Plan provides health benefits (medical, hospital, surgical, major medical, and dental), life insurance coverage, long-term, disability benefits, and death benefits to full-time participants (with at least 450 hours of work in the industry during a consecutive three-month period) and to their beneficiaries and covered dependents. Retired employees are entitled to similar health benefits (in excess of Medicare coverage) provided they have attained at least age sixty-two and have fifteen years of service with participating employers before retirement.

The Plan also provides health benefits to participants during periods of unemployment, provided they have accumulated in the current year or in prior years credit amounts (expressed in hours) in excess of the hours required for current coverage. Accumulated eligibility credits equal to one year’s coverage may be carried forward.

Health, disability, and death claims of active and retired participants, dependents, and beneficiaries are processed by the Administrator Group, but the responsibility for payments to participants and providers is retained by the Plan.

In 19X1 the board of trustees amended the Plan to increase the deductible under major medical coverage from $100 to $300 and to extend dental coverage to employees retiring after December 31, 19X2. The amendment will not affect participating employers’ contributions to the Plan in 19X2 under the current collective bargaining agreement.

Contributions. Participating employers contribute 5.5 percent of wages pursuant to the current collective bargaining agreement between employers and the union (expiring February 19, 19X5). Employees and retirees may contribute specified amounts, determined periodically by the Plan’s actuary, to extend coverage to eligible dependents.

Other. The Plan’s board of trustees, as Sponsor, has the right under the Plan to modify the benefits provided to active employees. The Plan may be terminated only by joint agreement between industry and union, subject to the provisions set forth in ERISA.
Note 2: Summary of Accounting Policies

A. Valuation of Investments. The Plan’s investments are stated at fair value. Securities traded on the national securities exchange are valued at the last reported sales price on the last business day of the plan year. Investments traded in the over-the-counter market and listed securities for which no sale was reported on that date are valued at the average of the last reported bid and asked prices. For certain corporate bonds that do not have an established fair value, the Plan’s board of trustees has established a fair value based on yields currently available on comparable securities of issuers with similar credit ratings.

B. Postretirement Benefits. The postretirement benefit obligation represents the total actuarial present value of those estimated future benefits that are attributed to employee service rendered to December 31. Postretirement benefits include future benefits expected to be paid to or for (1) currently retired or terminated employees and their beneficiaries and dependents and (2) active employees and their beneficiaries and dependents after retirement from service with the participating employers. Prior to an active employee’s full eligibility date, the postretirement benefit obligation is the portion of the expected postretirement benefit obligation that is attributed to that employee’s service in the industry rendered to the valuation date.

The actuarial present value of the expected postretirement benefit obligation is determined by an actuary and is the amount that results from applying actuarial assumptions to historical claims-cost data to estimate future annual incurred claims costs per participant and to adjust such estimates for the time value of money (through discounts for interest) and the probability of payment (by means of decrements such as those for death, disability, withdrawal, or retirement) between the valuation date and the expected date of payment.

For measurement purposes, a 9.5 percent annual rate of increase in the per capita cost of covered health care benefits was assumed for 19X2; the rate was assumed to decrease gradually to 8.0 percent for 19X7 and to remain at that level thereafter. These assumptions are consistent with those used to measure the benefit obligation at December 31, 19X0.

The following were other significant assumptions used in the valuations as of December 31, 19X1.

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Assumption</th>
<th>Rate</th>

<tr>

<td>8.0%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Average retirement age</td>
<td>60</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mortality</td>
<td>1971 Group Annuity Mortality Table</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

The foregoing assumptions are based on the presumption that the Plan will continue. Were the Plan to terminate, different actuarial assumptions and other factors might be applicable in determining the actuarial present value of the postretirement benefit obligation.

C. Other Plan Benefits. Plan obligations at December 31 for health claims incurred by active participants but not reported at that date, for accumulated eligibility of participants, and for future disability payments to members considered permanently disabled at December 31 are estimated by the Plan’s actuary in accordance with accepted actuarial principles. Such estimated amounts are reported in the accompanying statement of the Plan’s benefit obligations at present value, based on an 8.0 percent discount rate. Health claims incurred by retired participants but not reported at year end are included in the postretirement benefit obligation.
Note 3: Benefit Obligations

The Plan’s deficiency of net assets over benefit obligations at December 31, 19X1, relates primarily to the postretirement benefit obligation, the funding of which is not covered by the contribution rate provided by the current bargaining agreement. It is expected that the deficiency will be funded through future increases in the collectively bargained contribution rates.

The weighted-average health care cost-trend rate assumption (see note 2B) has a significant effect on the amounts reported in the accompanying financial statements. If the assumed rates increased by one percentage point in each year, it would increase the obligation as of December 31, 19X1, by $2,600,000.

Note 4: Investments

The Plan’s investments are held by a bank-administered trust fund. During 19X1 and 19X0 the Plan’s investments (including investments bought, sold, and held during the year) appreciated in value by $300,000 and $200,000, respectively, as follows:

Note 5: Other Matters

The trust established under the Plan to hold the Plan’s assets is intended to qualify pursuant to Section 501(c)9 of the Internal Revenue Code, and, accordingly, the trust’s net investment income is exempt from income taxes. The Plan has obtained a favorable tax determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service, and the Plan sponsor believes that the Plan, as amended, continues to qualify and to operate in accordance with applicable provisions of the internal revenue code.

CLASSIC ENTERPRISES BENEFIT PLAN

Notes to Financial Statements

Note 1: Description of Plan

The following description of the Classic Enterprises Benefit Plan (the Plan) provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan agreement for a complete description of the Plan’s provisions.

General. The Plan provides health and death benefits covering substantially all active and retired employees of Classic Enterprises (the Sponsor). It is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), as amended.

Benefits. The Plan provides health benefits (medical, hospital, surgical, major medical, and dental) and death benefits to full-time employees of the Sponsor (with at least 1,000 hours of service each year) and to their beneficiaries and covered dependents. Retired employees are entitled to similar health and death benefits provided they have attained at least age fifty-five and have at least ten years of service with the Sponsor.

Current health claims of active and retired participants and their dependents and beneficiaries are provided under group insurance contracts with ABC Carrier, which are experience rated after the anniversary dates of the policies (generally March 31). Death benefits are covered by a group-term policy with DEF Carrier.

Contributions. The Sponsor’s policy is to contribute the maximum amounts allowed as a tax deduction by the Internal Revenue Code. Under present law, the Sponsor is not permitted to deduct amounts for future benefits to current employees and retirees.

Employees and retirees may contribute specified amounts, determined periodically by the Plan’s insurance companies, to extend coverage to eligible dependents.

In 19X1 the Plan was amended to increase the deductible under major medical coverage from $100 to $300 and to extend dental coverage to employees retiring after December 31, 19X1. The amendment is not expected to significantly affect the Sponsor’s contribution to the Plan in 19X2.

Other. Although it has not expressed any intention to do so, the Sponsor has the right under the Plan to modify the benefits provided to active employees, to discontinue its contributions at any time and to terminate the Plan subject to the provisions set forth in ERISA.

Note 2: Summary of Accounting Policies

A. Valuation of Investments. The Plan’s investments are stated at fair value. Securities traded on the national securities exchanges are valued at the last reported sales price on the last business day of the plan year. Investments traded in the over-the-counter market and listed securities for which no sale was reported on that date are valued at the average of the last reported bid and asked prices. For certain corporate bonds that do not have an established fair value, the Classic Enterprises Benefits Committee has established a fair value based on yields currently available on comparable securities of issuers with similar credit ratings.

B. Plan Benefits. The postretirement benefit obligation (see note 3) represents the actuarial present value of those estimated future benefits that are attributed to employee service rendered to December 31. Postretirement benefits include future benefits expected to be paid to or for (i) currently retired employees and their beneficiaries and dependents and (2) active employees and their beneficiaries and dependents after retirement from service with the Sponsor. Prior to an active employee’s full eligibility date, the postretirement benefit obligation is the portion of the expected postretirement benefit obligation that is attributed to that employee’s service rendered to the valuation date.
The actuarial present value of the expected postretirement benefit obligation is determined by an actuary and is the amount that results from applying actuarial assumptions to historical claims-cost data to estimate future annual incurred claims costs per participant and to adjust such estimates for the time value of money (through discounts for interest) and the probability of payment. (by means of decrements such as those for death, disability, withdrawal, or retirement) between the valuation date and the expected date of payment.

For measurement purposes at December 31, 19X1, a 9.5 percent annual rate of increase in the per capita cost of covered health care benefits was assumed for 19X2; the rate was assumed to decrease gradually to 8.0 percent for 19X7 and to remain at that level thereafter. These assumptions are consistent with those used to measure the benefit obligation at December 31, 19X0.

The following were other significant assumptions used in the valuations as of December 31, 19X1 and 19X0.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Assumption</th>
<th>Value</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Weighted-average discount rate</td>
<td>8.0%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Average retirement age</td>
<td>60</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mortality</td>
<td>1971 Group Annuity Mortality Table</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The foregoing assumptions are based on the presumption that the Plan will continue. Were the Plan to terminate, different actuarial assumptions and other factors might be applicable in determining the actuarial present value of the postretirement benefit obligation.

Note 3: Benefit Obligations

Health costs incurred by participants and their beneficiaries and dependents are covered by insurance contracts maintained by the Plan. It is the present intention of the Sponsor and the Plan to continue obtaining insurance coverage for benefits. As stated in note 1, the Sponsor is not permitted under present tax law to deduct amounts for future benefits (beyond one year). Insurance premiums for future years in respect of the Plan’s postretirement benefit obligation will be funded by Sponsor contributions to the Plan in those later years.

The postretirement benefit obligation at December 31, 19X1 and 19X0, principally health benefits, relates to the following categories of participants (including their beneficiaries and dependents):

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Category</th>
<th>19X1</th>
<th>19X0</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Current retirees</td>
<td>$3,900,000</td>
<td>$3,500,000</td>

<tr>

<td>2,000,000</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Participants not yet fully eligible for benefits</td>
<td>5,000,000</td>
<td>4,165,000</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

$11,000,000 $9,665,000

The health care cost-trend rate assumption (see note 2B) has a significant effect on the amounts reported. If the assumed rates increased by one percentage point in each year, that would increase the obligation as of December 31, 19X1 and 19X0, by $2,600,000 and $2,500,000 respectively.
Note 4: Investments

The Plan’s investments are held by a bank-administered trust fund. During 19X1 and 19X0 the Plan’s investments (including investments bought, sold, and held during the year) appreciated in value by $300,000 and $200,000, respectively, as follows:

Note 5: Other Matters

The trust established under the Plan to hold the Plan’s net assets is intended to qualify pursuant to Section 501(c)9 of the Internal Revenue Code, and, accordingly, the trust’s net investment income is exempt from income taxes. The Sponsor has obtained a favorable tax determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service and the Sponsor believes that the Plan, as amended, continues to qualify and to operate in accordance with applicable provisions of the internal revenue code.
