THE AMERICAN SCHOLAR

1811 Q STREET, N. W. WASHINGTON 9, D. C. COLUMBIA 5-3808

June 2, 1964

Professor James Wesley Silver
Department of History
University of Mississippi
Oxford, Mississippi

Dear Professor Silver:

We recently talked with Vann Woodward, a member of our Editorial Board, about the coming Autumn issue of the AMERICAN SCHOLAR, an issue which is to be a sort of roundup of how things are going in the American scene. Mr. Woodward suggested that we write to you to ask whether you might be willing to write a piece for us on the coming summer in Mississippi for this special issue of the SCHOLAR. All of us hope very much that you will.

The best length for us is around 3000-3500 words; we pay $125.00; and our deadline is July 15. (I think we could extend the time a week or so if that would be helpful.) I am sending along a copy of the most recent issue of the SCHOLAR, and also a copy of a special issue we did several years ago of a somewhat similar nature to the one we are planning for this fall.

Do let us hear from you as soon as you conveniently can.

Sincerely yours,

Mary Moore Molony
