The Lowland QUEEN.

Pitts Printer. Toy and marble Warehouse. 6
Great st. Andrew street. 7 Dials

NOW spring has deck'd the fields in The vales with daffodils, (green,
How charming looks the rural scene
The stream the woods the hills,
I'll range the groves and valleys thro'
Where sweetest flowers are seen,
And pluck young roses dipt with dew,
To give my lowland Queen.

Of all the cottage maidens round
There's none so fair as she
Her jet black eyes where Cupid lies
Have stole my heart from me
I'll range, &c.

Soon will the blissful day arrive
When she shall be my own
then in a cot we'll happier live
Than those who wear a Crown
For never a lady in the land
Can my bonny Jean
How bleis'd my life when she's my wife
My little Lowland Queen,
