CHECKLISTS AND ILLUSTRATIVE
FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR PROPERTY AND LIABILITY INSURANCE COMPANIES

.01 The checklists and illustrative financial statements included in this section have been developed by the staff of the Technical Information Division of the AICPA as nonauthoritative technical practice aids. Readers should be aware of the following:

• The checklists and illustrative financial statements are "tools" and in no way represent official positions or pronouncements of the AICPA.

• The checklists and illustrative financial statements have been updated to include relevant accounting pronouncements through AICPA Statement on Auditing Standards No. 73, FASB Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 117, FASB Interpretation No. 40, FASB Technical Bulletin No. 94-1, AICPA
Statement of Position 94-1, AICPA Audit and Accounting Guide, Audits of Property and Liability Insurance Companies (with conforming changes as of May 1, 1994), AICPA Practice Bulletin No. 11, and EITF consensuses adopted up to and including the May 19, 1994, Emerging Issues Task Force meeting. In addition, a supplemental checklist outlines disclosure requirements for property and liability insurance companies that are SEC registrants. The checklists and illustrative financial statements should be modified, as appropriate, for subsequent pronouncements. In determining the applicability of a pronouncement, its effective date should also be considered.

• The checklists and illustrative financial statements should be used by, or under the supervision of, persons having adequate technical training and proficiency in the application of generally accepted accounting principles, generally accepted auditing standards, and statements on standards for accounting and review services.

• The checklists and illustrative financial statements do not represent minimum requirements and do not purport to be all-inclusive. The referenced standards should be reviewed if clarification is needed to determine whether the disclosure indicated is required or suggested, and to what extent each disclosure is relevant to the statements being presented. The illustrative financial statements are reproduced from the AICPA Audit and Accounting Guide, Audits of Property and Liability Insurance Companies, and do not necessarily contain all required disclosures.

.02 Users of the checklists and illustrative financial statements are urged to refer directly to applicable authoritative pronouncements when appropriate. If you have further questions, call the AICPA Technical Hotline.

Note: This publication was extracted from sections 20,000 through 20,600 of the AICPA Financial Statement Preparation Manual (FSP).
FSP Section 20,100

Introduction

.01 The primary purpose of the property and liability insurance business is the spreading of risks. The term risk generally has two meanings in insurance. It can mean either a peril insured against (e.g., fire is a risk to which most property is exposed) or a person or property protected (e.g., young drivers, who many insurance companies believe are not good risks). For a payment known as a premium, insurance companies undertake to relieve the policyholder of all or part of a risk and to spread the total cost of similar risks among large groups of policyholders.

.02 The functions of the property and liability insurance business include marketing, underwriting (e.g., determining the acceptability of risks and the amounts of the premiums), billing and collecting premiums, investing and managing assets, investigating and settling claims made under policies, and paying expenses associated with these functions.

.03 In conducting its business, an insurance company accumulates a significant amount of investable assets. In addition to funds raised as equity and funds retained as undistributed earnings, funds accumulate from premiums collected in advance; from sums held for the payment of claims in the process of investigation, adjustment, or litigation; and from sums held for payment of future claims settlement expenses. The accumulation of these funds, their investment, and the generation of investment income are major activities of insurance companies.

.04 Property and liability insurance companies must file an annual statement, prepared on the basis of Statutory Accounting Practice ("SAP"), with each state in which the companies are licensed. The primary purpose of the extensive regulatory laws enacted by the states has been the protection of the policyholders. The annual statements filed with the regulatory authorities are used to monitor the financial condition of insurance companies in the periods between examinations by state or zone auditors.

.05 Common accounting and reporting practices by property and liability insurance companies include:

- Most property and liability insurance companies use the cash-basis method of accounting for recording purposes and the accrual-basis method for reporting purposes.
- Insurance companies usually prepare non-classified balance sheets.
- The first item in the balance sheet is usually the company's investments rather than cash.
- Evaluation of loss and loss expense reserves is subjective and involves a high degree of management judgment; consequently, it entails considerable audit risk for the auditor.
- Actuarial assumptions are chosen by the actuarial profession. The auditors' responsibility is to form a judgment as to whether the actuaries were guided in their work by considerations consistent with generally accepted accounting principles.
- Premiums from short-duration contracts ordinarily should be recognized as revenue over the period of the contract in proportion to the amount of insurance protection provided.
- Under some insurance contracts, the period of risk differs significantly from the contract period; in these cases the premium is recognized as revenue over the period of risk in proportion to the amount of insurance protection provided.
- Acquisition costs are deferred and charged to operations in proportion to premium revenue.
• Reinsurance receivables and prepaid reinsurance premiums are reported as assets, and estimated reinsurance receivables are recognized in a manner consistent with the liabilities relating to the underlying reinsured contracts.

• Debt securities classified as held-to-maturity are reported at amortized cost. Debt and equity securities classified as trading securities are reported at fair value with unrealized gains and losses included in earnings. Debt and equity securities classified as available-for-sale are reported at fair value with unrealized gains and losses excluded from earnings and reported in a separate component of shareholders' equity.
.01 Many auditors and accountants find it helpful to use checklists as practice aids in the preparation of financial statements and reports. Some firms have developed their own checklists for internal use and may also have specialized checklists to meet the needs of their practices, such as checklists for clients in particular industries or clients that report to the SEC. Some state CPA societies have developed checklists as practice aids that may be available to other practitioners, as well as to their own members. Some commercial publishers also include checklists in certain of their publications. However, authoritative literature does not require the use of such checklists, nor does it prescribe their format or content, which may vary.

.02 Checklists typically consist of a number of brief questions or statements that are accompanied by references to Statements on Auditing Standards, Statements of Financial Accounting Standards, Accounting Principles Board Opinions, Accounting Research Bulletins, AICPA Statements of Position, and EITF consensuses. Some checklists also include references to FASB Interpretations and the AICPA Audit and Accounting Guides. The extent of detail included in checklists varies with the judgment of the preparers on how extensively to refer to and highlight authoritative literature without developing a checklist that is too long and unwieldy. Accordingly, checklists may serve as convenient memory aids but cannot be used as a substitute for direct reference to the authoritative literature.

.03 Checklists usually provide for checking off or initialing each question or point to show that it has been considered. The format used herein is a typical one; it provides for "yes," "no," and "not applicable" answers and presumes that remarks would be made on separate cross-referenced memorandums. Some preparers, however, prefer to include space for remarks in the body of the checklist, while others prefer alternative checklist formats. For example, a checklist format may provide for the following set of answers: "not applicable," "not material," "in statements" and "in notes" (with provisions for indicating a cross-reference to the specific statement caption or note). Another format may provide for only two answers, "disclosed" and "not applicable." Firms and practitioners who develop their own checklists should adopt formats that suit their needs and preferences.

.04 Checklists are generally accompanied by caveats that include all of the following points:

- Use of the checklists requires the exercise of individual professional judgment and may likely require some modification based on the circumstances of individual engagements.
- The checklists are not all-inclusive and are not intended to present minimum requirements.
- Users need to modify the checklists for any pronouncements issued subsequent to those mentioned in the checklist.

.05 If widespread circulation is expected, the preparers also generally stress the nonauthoritative or unofficial status of the checklists and disclaim responsibility for the way they may be used.
This checklist has been developed by the staff of the Technical Information Division of the AICPA as a nonauthoritative practice aid.

Note 1: Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The significant accounting policies followed by The Property and Liability Insurance Company and Subsidiaries (the "Company") are summarized as follows:

Principles of Consolidation. The consolidated financial statements include the accounts, after intercompany eliminations, of the Company and its subsidiaries.

Basis of Presentation. The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles that differ from statutory accounting practices prescribed or permitted for insurance companies by regulatory authorities.

Trading securities. Bonds, notes, and redeemable and nonredeemable preferred stock held principally for resale in the near term are classified as trading account securities and recorded at their fair values. Realized and unrealized gains and losses on trading account securities are included in other income.

Securities Held-to-Maturity. Bonds, notes, and redeemable and nonredeemable preferred stock for which the insurance company has the intent and ability to hold to maturity are reported at amortized cost, adjusted for amortization of premiums or discounts and other-than-temporary declines in fair value.

Securities Available-for-Sale. Bonds, notes, common stock, and redeemable preferred stock not classified as either trading or held-to-maturity are reported at fair value, adjusted for other-than-temporary declines in fair value, with unrealized gains and losses excluded from losses and reported as a separate component of stockholder's equity. Realized gains and losses are determined on the specific identification method.

Mortgage Loans on Real Estate. Mortgage loans on real estate at unpaid balances, adjusted for amortization of premium or discount, less a provision for credit losses.

Real Estate. Real estate at cost, less allowances for depreciation and impairment of value.

Interest Rate Futures. The Company uses interest rate futures contracts as part of its overall interest rate risk management strategy for certain insurance products. Gains and losses on futures contracts used in asset/liability management for identified positions are deferred and amortized over the remaining lives of the hedged assets or liabilities as an adjustment to interest income or expense. When the assets or liabilities underlying the futures contracts are disposed of or eliminated, any unamortized gains or losses are recognized concurrently.

Cash Equivalents. For the purpose of presentation in the Company’s statement of cash flows, cash equivalents are short-term, highly liquid investments that are both (1) readily convertible to known amounts of cash and (2) so near to maturity that they present insignificant risk of changes in value due to changing interest rates.

Recognition of Premium Revenues. Property and liability premiums are generally recognized as revenue on a pro rata basis over the policy term. The portion of premiums that will be earned in the future are deferred and reported as unearned premiums.

Deferred Policy Acquisition Costs. Commissions and other costs of acquiring insurance that vary with and are primarily related to the production of new and renewal business are deferred and amortized over the terms of the policies or reinsurance treaties to which they relate. Amortization in 19X2 and 19X1 was approximately $58,000,000 and $55,000,000, respectively.

Property and Equipment. Property and equipment is recorded at cost and is depreciated principally under the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the respective assets.

Insurance Liabilities. The liability for losses and loss-adjustment expenses includes an amount determined from loss reports and individual cases and an amount, based on past experience, for losses incurred but not reported. Such liabilities are necessarily based on estimates and, while management believes that the amount is adequate, the ultimate liability may be in excess of or less than the amounts provided. The methods for making such estimates and for establishing the resulting liability are continually reviewed and any adjustments are reflected in earnings currently. The reserve for losses and loss-adjustment expenses is reported net of receivables for salvage and subrogation of approximately $17,527,000 and $16,276,000 at December 31, 19X2 and 19X1, respectively.

Participating Policies. Participating business represents 6 percent of total premiums in force and premium income at December 31, 19X2 and 8 percent at December 31, 19X1. The majority of participating business is composed of workers' compensation policies. The amount of dividends to be paid on these policies is determined based on the terms of the individual policies.

Reinsurance. In the normal course of business, the Company seeks to reduce the loss that may arise from catastrophes or other events that cause unfavorable underwriting results by reinsuring certain levels of risk in various areas of exposure with other insurance enterprises or reinsurers. Amounts recoverable from reinsurers are estimated in a manner consistent with the reinsured policy. The amount by which the liabilities associated with the reinsured policies exceed the amounts paid for retroactive reinsurance contracts is amortized in income over the estimated remaining settlement period using the interest method. The effects of subsequent changes in estimated or actual cash flows are accounted for by adjusting the previously deferred amount to the balance that would have existed had the revised estimate been available at the inception of the reinsurance transactions, with a corresponding charge or credit to income.

Income Taxes. Income tax provisions are based on the asset and liability method. Deferred federal income taxes have been provided for temporary differences between the tax basis of assets and liabilities and their reported amounts in the financial statements. Such differences are related principally to the deferral of policy acquisition costs and the recognition of salvage and subrogation on an accrual basis.

Income Per-Share of Common Stock. Income per-share of common stock is based on the weighted-average number of shares of common stock outstanding during each year. The effect of stock options is not material to the computation of earnings per-share.

Major categories of net investment income are summarized as follows:

Note 3: Reinsurance Activity

Substantial amounts of reinsurance are assumed, both domestic and foreign. Such reinsurance includes quota share, excess of loss, catastrophe, facultative, and other forms of reinsurance on essentially all property and casualty lines of insurance. The Company also cedes insurance to other companies and these reinsurance contracts do not relieve the Company from its obligations to policyholders. Failure of reinsurers to honor their obligations could result in losses to the Company; consequently, allowances are established for amounts deemed uncollectible. The Company evaluates the financial condition of its reinsurers and monitors concentrations of credit risk arising from similar geographic regions, activities, or economic characteristics of the reinsurers to minimize its exposure to significant losses from reinsurer insolvencies. At December 31, 19X2, reinsurance receivables with a carrying value of $8 million and prepaid reinsurance premiums of $5 million were associated with a single reinsurer. The Company holds collateral under related reinsurance agreements in the form of letters of credit totaling $5 million that can be drawn on for amounts that remain unpaid for more than 120 days.

The Company limits the maximum net loss that can arise from large risks or risks in concentrated areas of exposure by reinsuring (ceding) certain levels of risks with other insurers or reinsurers, either on an automatic basis under general reinsurance contracts known as “treaties” or by negotiation on substantial individual risks. Ceded reinsurance is treated as the risk and liability of the assuming companies.

The effect of reinsurance on premiums written and earned for 19X2 and 19X1 is as follows:

The amounts of premiums and recoveries pertaining to catastrophe reinsurance contracts that were deducted from earned premiums and losses incurred during 19X2 and 19X1 were approximately $4,892,000 and $3,232,000, respectively.

Note 4: Income Taxes

The U.S. Federal statutory income tax rate applicable to ordinary income is XX percent for 19X2 and 19X1. The Company’s effective federal income tax rate is less than the statutory rate due primarily to tax exempt interest, dividends received deduction, and fresh start adjustments.

The components of the net deferred tax liability is as follows:

The Company has net operating loss carryforwards for tax purposes of $35,297 and investment tax credit carryforwards of $49,396. The tax loss carryforwards (if not utilized against taxable income) and investment credit carryforwards expire beginning in 19XX and continuing through 19XX.

The Company paid income taxes of $30,000 in 19X2 and $21,300 in 19X1.

Note 5: Dividends From Subsidiaries

The funding of the cash requirements of the Company (parent company) is primarily provided by cash dividends from the Company’s subsidiaries. Dividends paid by the insurance subsidiaries are restricted by regulatory requirements of the domiciliary states. Generally, the maximum dividend that may be paid without prior regulatory approval is limited to the greater of 10 percent of statutory surplus (stockholders’ equity on a statutory basis) or 100 percent of net investment income for the prior year. Dividends exceeding these limitations can generally be made subject to approval by various state insurance departments. The subsidiaries paid cash dividends to the Company of $24,754,000 and $22,100,000 in 19X2 and 19X1, respectively. At December 21, 19X2, the maximum dividend that may be paid to the Company in 19X3 without regulatory approval is approximately $146,000,000.

Note 6: Statutory Net Income and Stockholders’ Equity

Generally accepted accounting principles differ in certain respects from the accounting practices prescribed or permitted by insurance regulatory authorities (statutory basis). Statutory net income was approximately $35,681,000 and $52,735,000 in 19X2 and 19X1, respectively, and statutory stockholders’ equity was approximately $347,237,000 and $299,720,000 at December 31, 19X2 and 19X1, respectively.

Note 7: Contingencies

In November 1988, California voters passed Proposition 103, requiring insurers doing business in that state to roll back property/casualty premium prices to November 1987 levels, less an additional 20 percent discount. Insurers challenged the constitutionality of Proposition 103, and in May 1989, the California Supreme Court upheld the proposition in large part. However, the Court also ruled that the rollback provision does not apply to an insurer who demonstrates through rate filings that the rate rollback would not allow a “fair and reasonable return.” The Company filed for exemption from the rate rollback for all lines affected by Proposition 103. In September 1989, the California Insurance Commissioner announced that the Company would be afforded a hearing and using different assumptions and methods than prescribed for the original filing, determined that the Company should roll back its rates and refund premiums of $19 million. The Company disagrees with the Commissioner’s methods and conclusions and no provision for potential rate rollbacks or premium refunds is reflected in the financial results.

In October 1989, the Commissioner suspended the individual hearings and began a consolidated hearing, in which the Company is participating, intended to define the generic issue of the methods to be used to calculate potential rate rollbacks and analyze future rate filings. Until the generic issues are resolved in the Commissioner’s consolidated hearing, there will be uncertainty as to whether the Company will ultimately be required to roll back any of its rates or refund any premiums. Management believes such rate rollbacks and premium refunds, if any, would not have a material adverse effect on the Company’s financial position.

Note 8: Financial Instruments with Off-Balance-Sheet Risk and Concentrations of Credit Risk

At December 31, 19X2, the Company held unrated or less-than-investment grade corporate debt securities of $646,641,000 net of reserves for losses, with an aggregate market value of $639,347,986. Those holdings amounted to 6 percent of the Company’s corporate debt securities investments and less than 3 percent of total assets. The holdings of less-than-investment grade securities are widely diversified and of satisfactory quality based on the Company’s investment policies and credit standards. The Company also invests in mortgage loans principally involving commercial real estate. At December 31, 19X2, 20 percent of such mortgages involved properties located in California and Arizona. Such investments consist of first mortgage liens on completed income-producing properties, and mortgages on individual properties do not exceed $__________.

Note 9: Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The following methods and assumptions were used to estimate the fair value of each class of financial instruments for which it is practicable to estimate that value:

Cash and short-term investments. For those short-term instruments, the carrying amount is a reasonable estimate of fair value.

Investment in securities. For investments in securities, fair values are based on quoted market prices or dealer quotes, if available. If a quote market price is not available, fair value is estimated using quoted market prices for similar securities.

Mortgage loans on real estate and policy loans. The fair value of mortgage loans on real estate is estimated using the quoted market prices for securities backed by similar loans, adjusted for differences in loan characteristics. The fair value of policy loans is estimated by discounting the future cash flows using the current rates at which similar loans would be made to contract holders with similar credit ratings and the same remaining maturities.
