Prof. Cheryl McWatters Named First Non-U.K.-Based Editor for Accounting History Review
Ever the gentleman, Catlett could disagree without being disagreeable. He staunchly supported Spacek’s crusade to rid GAAP of optional treatments and to establish the objectives of financial accounting.

He was president of the Illinois Society of Certified Public Accountants in 1966-67 and was vice-president of the AICPA in 1976-77. In 1982, he published a book on the Catlett families in Virginia and Illinois.

He married Martha Jane Beamsley in 1944. He is survived by four sons, their children, and a sister. His wife died in 2007.

Professor Cheryl S. McWatters, the Father Edgar Thivierge Chair in Business History at the University of Ottawa/Telfer School has been appointed editor of Accounting History Review. Dr. McWatters is a long-time member of the journal's editorial board and becomes the first woman editor as well as the first non-U.K.-based editor at Accounting History Review since the journal's inception.

Dr. McWatters is active in a number of international research organizations in accounting, management and economic history, as well as serving as ad hoc reviewer for a wide variety of journals and conferences in these areas. She is an associate editor of Accounting Perspectives and a member of the editorial boards of Journal of Operations Management and Accounting, Auditing and Accountability Journal. She previously was the associate editor and Interfaces editor of the Accounting Historians Journal and remains a member of its editorial board.
