Special Thanks to Dale Flesher

Accounting History Review Conference Announcement

International Festschrift in Honour of Professor Yannick Lemarchand

Known globally for his research and publications examining accounting, accounting history, history and management, Professor Yannick Lemarchand, professeur émérite en Sciences de gestion at the Université de Nantes, has played a critical role in broadening the boundaries of 'accounting history' to include other management disciplines, areas of history and countries beyond the Anglo-Saxon context.

It is with great pleasure that we announce an international Festschrift in honour of Prof. Lemarchand. Colleagues from around the globe will present original papers on a topic of their choosing, we prefer that contributors propose a suitable tribute based on their research and not frame their presentation as 'Lemarchand-specific'. The event will include time for discussion, gatherings, and a banquet honoring Prof. Lemarchand.

Dates: Thursday, November 12th to Saturday, November 14th, 2015.

Location: Institut d'Études avancées (IEA), 5, Allée Jacques Berque, Nantes, France
