ACCOUNTING FIRMS AND PRACTITIONERS 1955

FOREWORD

For convenience of preparation, the directory of members in alphabetical sequence and the directory of firms and individual practitioners by geographical location are being published separately and in alternate years. In this directory of firms and practitioners, only those members have been listed who are partners of accounting firms or who are practicing accounting as individual practitioners, except that in branch offices where there is no partner the manager, if a member of the Institute, has been listed. It is understood that a partner or individual practitioner is resident in the location where he is listed. Partners are listed in order of seniority where this has been requested—otherwise alphabetically. The number shown in parentheses is the postal zone number.
