Dear Jim Silver:

You are an amazing person!
Just when I give you up as a lost cause or a lost person, you, like the poet, appear. Don't stay away even years, though. Anyway, Thank you for your note and its enclosure.

You want to teach me history again? I am aware I wasn't your star pupil. But I need something to stimulate my increasingly feeble mind. How you an especially interesting course?

I suppose we Mississippians are making history today. I'd rather read about it in the books.

Tell Dutch to get busy and cook one of Tillie's concoctions for you.

Best wishes,
Sincerely yours,
Margaret Wynn
