Tax Division Membership—A New AICPA Feature for Members Who Have an Interest in Federal Taxation

THE TAX DIVISION OF THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS—authorized by the Council of the AICPA in October 1983—has been established for those CPAs who have an interest in taxes. It recognizes the professional needs of today's CPA-tax practitioner and tax executive by providing opportunities for those CPAs to share their special knowledge...expand their competence...exchange experiences and ideas...and discuss commonly-shared technical and professional problems.

The AICPA Tax Division will be part of the AICPA structure. Membership is voluntary and is available only to CPAs who are members in good standing of the American Institute.

How Membership in the Tax Division Can Benefit You

☐ You will be able to attend semi-annual meetings of the Tax Division where you can participate in discussions at plenary sessions dealing with such key subject areas as tax policy issues...proposed legislation...IRS National Office tax administration...and other tax problems. You will also be able to observe meetings of subcommittees of the Executive Committee devoted to subjects of a more specialized nature.

☐ You will receive a subscription to The Tax Adviser as part of the membership. (If you are now a subscriber, you will get a refund for the balance of your current subscription.) You will also receive the Tax Division's newsletter and other Tax Division publications.

☐ You will receive copies of Tax Division position papers on proposed tax changes and other tax issues.

☐ You will receive agendas for meetings of the Executive Committee, highlights of past meetings and reports on activities of subcommittees and task forces.

☐ As part of your basic membership, you will also receive agendas and minutes covering meetings of one subcommittee of your choice. You will become current in the subcommittee's activities including participation in the review of proposed regulations...service on task forces...and providing other input from time to time.

☐ You will have the option to receive agendas and minutes of additional subcommittees for a nominal service fee to cover the cost of materials and distribution. Tax Division subcommittees are...

☐ You will benefit from anticipated future expansion of Tax Division activities including the development of tax practice aids on such subjects as return preparation...review checklists...and engagement and transmittal letters.

How Tax Division Membership Benefits the Profession

☐ Establishment of the Tax Division underscores the preeminent role of CPAs working in the field of taxes. This in turn will heighten the reputation of the profession as a whole.

☐ Tax Division membership represents an opportunity for a large number of AICPA members to participate in tax activities.

☐ Positions taken by the AICPA in tax matters will reflect informed views from a substantially larger number of practitioners.

☐ Members are likely to be motivated to maintain a high level of performance in tax practice through increased association and collaboration with their professional peers.

Tax Division Membership Dues and Fees

Annual membership in the AICPA Tax Division covers the period August 1st through July 31st, to correspond with the AICPA fiscal year. Annual dues for 1984-85 are $70. This fee covers membership in the Tax Division plus involvement with one subcommittee of your choice.

Tax Division members may also elect to receive materials dealing with the activities of additional subcommittees at an annual fee of $15 for each subcommittee.

FREE GRACE PERIOD FOR MEMBERS

The AICPA Tax Division membership year starts on August 1, 1984. Members who join prior to August 1st, will enjoy free membership until that date.
