Appreciation

Marguerite Reimers, immediate past Editor of THE WOMAN CPA, wrote, in the August 1957 issue, of the challenge to the new editor to continue the high standards and to work for the continued improvement of the publication. After serving as editor for 36 issues of THE WOMAN CPA, Miss Reimers, in the June, 1963 issue, expressed gratitude for the opportunity afforded her to widen her horizons and thanked the Societies for a "memorable experience."

As we endeavor to get our first copy in the hands of the printer, we realize, perhaps more than ever before, how deeply indebted the members of both AWSCPA and ASWA are to Miss Reimers. Not only has she contributed much to the progress of the Societies in the past six years, but she has also found time for other civic and community activities.

In addition to conducting her own accounting practice in Seattle (she now has two ASWA members on her staff), she served one year as president of the Seattle First Business and Professional Women's Club. At that time, she was also Secretary of the Washington State Federation of Business & Professional Clubs. For the past three years she has served as chairman of the audit committee of the Municipal League of Seattle and King County.

As she retires from the editorship, she expects to have more time and filing space available so that she can substantially increase her billings in the future! In addition, she promises to contribute manuscripts to THE WOMAN CPA!

A sincere thank you to Miss Reimers for a job well done.
