THE WOODMAN'S COT.

THE Woodman's life tho' doom'd to toll,
Is blest beyond what wealth can give,
And dear to him his native soil ;
That bids him independant live,
And if a care the morning knows,
That frowns upon his humble lot,
How sweet at eve the calm repose,
That smiles upon the Woodman's cot.

At early day he loves to hear,
The cheerful song that swells around,
The sweetest music to his ear,
To list the falling axe around ;
And tho' some care his labour knows,
Yet health and freedom are his lot,
And sweet at eve the calm repose,
That smiles upon the Woodman's cot.
