A NEW SONG.

Tune. HEARTS of OAK.

YOU free Independants of Pomfret attend,
Unto the advice of a well wishing Friend,
For brave Rowl. W—a unanimous Poll,
And drink him success in a full flowing Bowl.

C H O R U S.

Let your Conduct be true, and Loyal remain,
And always be ready,
Steady Boys steady,
To Vote for a W—n Boys again and again.

In chusing of Members be careful and true,
For 'tis from this Choice, Britons good must ensue,
Chuse those that are Loyal true Hearted and free,
For the National good, and for fam'd Liberty.

Chorus. Let your Conduct, &c.

Then for such true Britons for Honour renown'd,
Let the Country be Cull'd, and strict search made around,

But when this is done, and do all you can,
You frankly must own R--l--d W--n is the Man.

Chorus. Let your Conduct, &c.

Then on such a Man, with such goodness endow'd,
Let your Votes be with Freedom, sincerely bestow'd,
Don't let the base Shams, the great Nabob bring in,
But Vote to a Burgefs, for brave R--l--d W--n.

Chorus. Let your Conduct, &c.

On the Day of Election prove loyal and just,
Scorn bribery Schemes, and be true to your Trust,
Vote in R--l--d W--n, on that canvassing Day,
And let him be Chared with a hearty Huzza.

Chorus. Let your Conduct, &c.

To do good to Pomfret he's realy inclin'd,
Your selves well repaid for all favours you'll find,
Then Drink and be Jovial, and merrily Sing,
Success to Sir Rowland and God save the King.
