THE DUCHESS of DRURY LANE

Sung by Miss Kate Carney.

Now perhaps some of you do not know
Good old Liz!
Well, I know that lady's far from slow—
Good old Liz!
You bet she knows her way about,
Of that there's not the slightest doubt,
The boys all shout when she goes out—
Good old Liz!

Chorus:—

For she's the Duchess of Drury Lane, and don't she cut a dash fine?
She's a bit witty and a bit pretty, she's the best donah
I know!
She's a style, it's all her own, and it is known to fame,
Good old Liz! Straight she is the Duchess of Drury Lane!

The swells will wink their eye and say—
Good old Liz!
Then for a drink they'll freely pay
For good old Liz!
The rowdy ones—don't you forget!
If they come it you can bet,
One from the shoulder straight they get
From good old Liz!
Chorus.

A regular proper sort of girl
Is good old Liz!
The donahs all will make a pal
Of good old Liz!
When she goes out she has a spree,
There's never any mistake, you see,
For the girl to splash the L. s. d.,
Is good old Liz!
Chorus.
