WHISPER AND I SHALL HEAR.

Sung by JAMES NORRIE.

If in the summer morn, dear,
You wander amid the flowers,
If you feel sad and lone, dear,
Thinking of past glad tears ;
Just breathe my name to the woodlands,
Sigh what your heart would say,
I know I shall hear your message, dear,
Borne on the breeze away.

Chorus.

O, winds that blow from the south,
Sighing so soft and low,
Whisper your secret, sweet,
Whisper and I shall know.
O, winds that blow from the south,
Breathe in my list'ning ear,
Come from the heart of my love,
Whisper and I shall hear.

If when you're weary, darling,
You wander at gloaming tide,
Where by the stream and meadow,
We wandered side by side.
Just whisper you love me, darling,
Say that your heart is true,
Whisper you love me, darling,
Just as you used to do.

Chorus.

O, winds that blow from the south,
Sighing so soft and low,
Whisper your secret, sweet,
Whisper and I shall know,
O, winds that blow from the south,
Breathe in my list'ning ear,
Come from the heart of my love,
Whisper and I shall hear !
Come from the heart of my love,
O, whisper and I shall hear.
