JOHN ROBERT SPARROW

John Robert Sparrow, member of the American Institute of Accountants, certified public accountant, senior partner of the firm of Sparrow, Harvey & Co., New York, died Saturday, April 9, 1921.

Mr. Sparrow was one of the leaders of the accounting profession and had been active in the work of the state board of accountancy and the New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants, as well as in the national organization. He was one of the outstanding personalities in the profession in New York.

Connecticut State Society of Certified Public Accountants

At the annual meeting of the Connecticut State Society of Certified Public Accountants at New Haven, April 13, 1921, the following officers were elected: President, Leonard M. Troub; vice-president, Charles F. Coates; secretary, Milon M. Stone; treasurer, Frederick W. Child; auditor, Edward J. Paul.

The secretary's report indicates that the society consists of 68 members, 15 of whom were admitted during the past year.

A resolution was adopted instructing the committee on state legislation to oppose any change in the status of the state board of accountancy which would interfere with the technical character of its work now under strict control of the accounting profession.

It was reported that there are now 36 certified public accountants in practice in Connecticut.
