NEW ENGLAND REGIONAL MEETING

The second regional meeting of the New England members of the American Institute of Accountants was held at Providence, June 28 and 29, 1921.

The committee in charge of the meeting consisted of:

Alfred P. Ward—Providence
Lewis G. Fisher—Providence
Chester R. Union—Providence
Adin S. Hubbard—Providence
George B. Clegg—Providence

The meeting was opened at the Narragansett hotel, J. E. Masters, of Boston, presiding. An address of welcome on behalf of the Rhode Island Society of Certified Public Accountants was extended by Lewis G. Fisher of Providence.

Waldron H. Rand, of Boston, chose as the subject of his address the activities of the American Institute of Accountants, during the past year, and was followed by Everett E. Salisbury, agent of the Atlantic mills, Providence, who delivered an address on the Value of Accounting Service to the Business Man.

The afternoon session consisted of an address by F. B. Snyder of Philadelphia on The Accountant's Ultimate Consumer, and a speech by Joseph French Johnson, dean of the New York University school of commerce and finance.

In the evening, a banquet was held at the Narragansett hotel, about ninety members and guests being in attendance.

The second day was devoted largely to entertainment of visiting members, a buffet luncheon being served at the Pomham club, followed by various sports and a Rhode Island clam bake.

During the business session, rules of procedure and a plan for the nomination and election of officers was approved by the members, and it was voted that the next meeting would be held in December at Hartford, Connecticut.
