The Journal of Accountancy

time and space advocating the obvious. Still much must be pardoned the enthusiast in his own line, particularly in view of the masterly skill with which Dr. Duncan has marshalled his facts and principles. The glowing enthusiasm of the last chapter—"The new business"—arouses one's sympathy, but, alas! we fear the war has not brought the millennium any nearer in business than in politics.

A SYSTEM OF BOOKKEEPING FOR GRAIN ELEVATORS, Bulletin No. 811, United States Department of Agriculture, by B. B. MASON, FRANK ROBOTKA and A. V. SWARTHOUT.

Attention of public accountants, especially in the west, is called to Bulletin No. 811 issued by the department of agriculture. It describes the method of operating a uniform system of grain elevator accounting to answer the requirements of grain elevators at country points throughout the United States. A list of accounts with clear and complete directions how to use them is furnished, together with forms of tickets, cash-journal, records, etc. For those who desire to instal the system the bureau of markets has provided printer's copy of the several forms for free distribution.
