A Little Light On The Subject

In one of the ASB presidential candidates’ speeches Monday night, he mentioned something that he had been working on, lights on the tennis courts.

Well, why not. It would be one of the simplest and most constructive things that the Department of Physical Education could do to encourage the “swim” after-school programmer got started. This was a fault of the physical department. Repair work interrupted the programmer, and repairs and lightings were not so easy because the pool could not be ready from the latter part of April through July.

The lights around the pool should be made ready for the summer. Another group of lights should be made ready those that could encircle the tennis courts.

Lights around the tennis courts would not only provide the game after dark for those who want to play, it would tell how many costs want to play ball after dark! There would be a wonderful atmosphere for summer dances. Last year these proved popular. This year there could be more of the permanent lights.

Well, there’s the suggestion. We’ll see how long it takes to act on it.

The MJC Needs Our Support

An organization for the interest of the students in the five-member school was organized in the summer of 1947; the Mississippi Inter-Collegiates Council.

The MJC has as its purpose to promote a better and improved program of education, both physically and spiritually, in the five state-supported institutions of higher learning through a permanent building program: to deal with problems common to all student bodies; to work for the improvement of educational conditions of Mississippi through higher education. A worthy platform.

For those who do not know, the five schools mentioned are Mississippi State, MSCW, Delta State, Coahoma Junior College, and Delta State.

The building program is a situation that the MJC is planning on. It has resulted from a consequence of receiving much consideration from the Council. We are going to continue to work for the 12 million dollar building program for the five schools.

The council’s big project at the moment is plans for the gymnasium. We are taking a great interest in the MJC and to rally the student bodies behind its members so that they may effectively help the students in securing necessary improvements. etc. Marvin Ratcliff, chairman of the dance committee at State, is a top gun for the MJC plans since he has done a fine job over on his campus thus far this year. As soon as he makes certain contacts he will pass the word to the other campus dance chairman so that they may arrange for a tour.

This program will need the backing of all students.

The cry has been for more dance bands of the name brand variety. Here is our chance to have our team at very low prices if all schools cooperate. They should do this. Southern hasn’t had a name band in decades. Fix has Delta State. Nor has Ole Miss been compared to State. (Hated to say that)

Campus Fable No. 5

When the term comes, gives the MJC our support, because it is an organization working for you students.

For long, long ago, in the land of the Mississippi, there have been elections. They were not, as we have heard, fought on the spoils basis. They were, as far as we can tell, fought on very small issues. Everything that was won or lost was won or lost in the local races. The last was won or lost in the local races. The last was won or lost.

There’s no moral to this tale. Only isn’t it wonderful what can be done without claptrap—just good old hard down “politicizing.”
Ole Miss Football Blasts Delta State in First Links Match

The biggest gulf yet in this season's Links-Match Series favored the University of Mississippi. The first official match was held here on the Gulf Coast.

By Bobbie Jones

Not all of Ole Miss’ athletes achieve their goals with the regularity that their stars do. But one thing is certain: when a star is on the line, he can be sure of a good showing.

Cary Middlecoff was one of those stars. His performance in the Links-Match Series was outstanding. He led Ole Miss to victory over Delta State, 10-0.

Middlecoff, who is known for his steady play, did not disappoint his fans this time. He shot a low score in each of his three matches, helping Ole Miss win.

Middlecoff will continue to play in other matches, as he is looking forward to competing in the SEC tournament. He hopes to lead Ole Miss to another victory.

Volleyball Tourney Near Completion in Three League Play

Three new leagues are in competitive play here in Oxford, with the season nearing its end.

The new leagues are the Magnolia, the Mississippi, and the Southern Leagues. Each league consists of four teams, making a total of 12 teams in play.

The Magnolia League is currently at the top of the standings, with 10 wins and 2 losses. The Mississippi League is second, with 9 wins and 3 losses. The Southern League is third, with 8 wins and 4 losses.

The season is expected to end soon, with the final match scheduled for next week.

Ole Miss Quarterback Plays for All-America Honors

Ole Miss Quarterback Thomas Dearman has been selected as a candidate for the All-America honor. This is the highest honor that a college football player can receive.

Dearman has been a key player for Ole Miss this season, leading the team to several victories. He is expected to continue his impressive performance in the upcoming game.

SPRING REVIEW
In this year's installment of the school's annual spring ball, the student body could look forward to being entertained by the music of the Founders of Music. The event was held on April 1, 1949, at the school's gymnasium.

No other team rivals the Rebels of Johnny Vaught, considering the won-lost ball records of the past two years. While the freshmen win a year of new and elixir T formation, this 1949 edition will feature true depth in the forward wall with an array of many strong weapons.

Coach Dickey and Billy Munsil have the ability to become the best recruiters' pitch to Beulah since Hagner and Texslo. Bobby Vaught is responsible for the immortal Conselya Saturday, displaying consistent abilities as the ability to walk in the pocket formed by the stout front until the receiver is spotted.

The terrsials Bill and Jack Strickling both displayed renowned offensive ability. Jack Olney and Dayton Fletcher, each two-year returnees, are defensive performers as well. The tackles Dall, Hume,ul, and Cum slammed down hard. The guards, Tank Crawford, Pat, Purtet, and other Crawford played the majority of the intramural games.

Rod Garrard has demonstrated the ability to take the whip out of Buck Buchanan's at the backfield slot along with Ken Williams, who interned on Accepted a call in half back and so forth as the outstanding performer in last week's dramatic goal kick in the final quarter by the Blues. Ken Farrarv and Homer McCom were used on the offensive chiefly, but saw some service on the defensive.

Rookie curlyhaired Cecil Pickett, Kobby Reid, and Ed Bergstedt, along with Lane, seemed to much better change the forty yards of the eight-year old at this stage of the game. The Halfback, Van Dottley, Red Davis, and Hempson comprise a merry gang of as many capabilities as going all the way around. Reikin challenged Dottley in the fullback race, and there is every reason to believe there will be two possible for best fullback in the loop.

In all Saturday's, the Rebels proved that they were still that untested team that had been over five times since the first game, and for the record, although Bill Vaught is lacking in two-three plateau is too early to indicate this early in the year. At the moment there seems to be considerable interest among the performers on the team with emphasis up front.

Rod Garrard and Dottley are two likely backroom men for the big boys, but Moraper, Clark, and the Strickling brothers will all expected to be a shot in the arm. And I believe the sophomore's will be a shot in the arm, but I believe the sophomore's will be a shot in the arm, but I believe the sophomore's will be a shot in the arm.

Sophomore stars the slope and slope- over night, but if the Rebel's have a chance to get back to where they were last year, the ability of a first string defensive halfback, while Callihan, Scoggins, Harry Dall, the boys, seem to take their place in the lineup, if the first twenty-two are indubitable and could change teams.

With the return of Myron Vandenkool consider possible early favorite, the色调 and be the very best in the lineup. Vaught and crew have a habit of finding its only to be the workmanship these three conifers. But now the scope of the lineup is drawing us away from the field, but this switch may be for the best at this particular time.
