Another
Tough Loss
For AICPA

The AICPA suffered another close defeat Wednesday night, losing to Paston Insurance 50-48. Playing well for most of the first half, the Institute led at half time, 27-23. The second half was a see-saw battle, with the AICPA shooting well from the free throw line (16 of 20 for the game). However, with about four minutes left, Paston spurted to a 5 point lead, and the Institute could not overcome this deficit.

The AICPA's next game will be this evening at 8:20 p.m. against Bank of Montreal. The game will be played at P.S. 111 (53rd Street between Ninth and Tenth Avenues), and spectators are welcome.

Salute
To The Troops

In recognition of our service men and women in the Persian Gulf, members of the Order Department have put together a commemoration. The map, located outside of Mary Conte's office (6th floor), posts the names of some AICPA members, friends and loved ones stationed overseas.

During this unsettling time, we can use the map as a vehicle to offer each other some support and encouragement. So, if you know anyone who is serving our country overseas, feel free to post his/her name. We will remember these men and women and their families in our prayers.

In Memoriam

We inform you with deepest sympathy that Garnette Mullis, Copy Editor - Journal of Accountancy, passed away on Saturday, January 19, 1991.

Garnette touched many of our lives. You may remember back in June, a call for platelet donations was made on behalf of Garnette. Many fellow staff members eagerly responded. Garnette's family expresses thanks to all AICPA staff members for their kindness.

Anyone wishing to express condolences may send a card to Garnette's brother:

Bart Mullis
704 W. Barraque
Pine Bluff, AR 71601

Also, if you wish to make a donation, you may do so to the Pastor's Fund, First Presbyterian Church, 717 West 32nd Street, Pine Bluff, AR 71603.

Reminder:

Completed and approved Human Resources Worksheet-A and Worksheet-B along with Capital Expenditures and Publications Worksheets should have been submitted to the Vice President-Finance and Administration no later than 4:00 p.m. last Friday, January 25, 1991. The completed and approved (i.e., VP_level) total budget package must be returned to the Vice President-Finance and Administration no later than 4:00 p.m. this coming Friday, February 1, 1991.
