

6-1939

Authors of Articles in this Issue

American Institute of Accountants

Follow this and additional works at: <https://egrove.olemiss.edu/jofa>

Part of the Accounting Commons

Recommended Citation

American Institute of Accountants (1939) "Authors of Articles in this Issue," Journal of Accountancy: Vol. 67: Iss. 6, Article 17.

Available at: <https://egrove.olemiss.edu/jofa/vol67/iss6/17>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Archival Digital Accounting Collection at eGrove. It has been accepted for inclusion in Journal of Accountancy by an authorized editor of eGrove. For more information, please contact egrove@olemiss.edu.

AUTHORS OF ARTICLES IN THIS ISSUE

HAROLD S. BENJAMIN, author of "Current Ratio or Net Working Capital?" is with the firm of Janis & Bruell, New York, N. Y. He received the Ph.D. degree in economics from the University of Cologne, Germany. Mr. Benjamin is a certified public accountant of New York and an associate member of the New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants.

F. BRADSHAW MAKIN, author of "Taxation in Britain," is a fellow of the Chartered Institute of Secretaries and of The Royal Economic Society. He has been a regular contributor to The Accountant for twelve years and a frequent contributor to the technical press on financial matters, both national and international, dealing with subjects such as the London money market, the exchange equalization account, the influence of the Bank of England, etc. Mr. Makin is the author of the following textbooks published in London: The London Money Market, Overhead Costs in Theory and Practice, and Practical Statistics.

WILLIAM W. WERTZ, author of "Some Problems as to Parent Companies," is chief accountant of the Securities and Exchange Commission. He was graduated from Yale University in 1929 and from Yale Law School in 1931. Mr. Wertz has served on the faculty of the Yale Law School as instructor in accounting and in the problems dealing with business, law, and finance. He is a specialist in legal accounting problems. Mr. Wertz was employed by the S.E.C. in 1935 as an attorney and until his appointment as chief accountant was attached to the division of forms and regulations.

Standard Bank Confirmation Forms

This form, designed by a Special Committee on Coöperation with Bankers, is used widely by accountants. Available to members and non-members of the American Institute of Accountants. Price $1.00 a hundred—$10.00 a thousand, payable with order. Firm name and address imprinted on form at small additional cost.

AMERICAN INSTITUTE PUBLISHING CO., INC.

13 East 41st Street, New York, N. Y.