Jersey City Public Library

The Jersey City Public Library is within walking distance from the Harborside Financial Center and is a great way to spend some time during your lunch hour. Located at 472 Jersey Avenue (between Montgomery and Mercer Streets) the Jersey City Public Library is open Monday - Thursday, 9:00 a.m. - 8:00 p.m.; Friday, 9:00 a.m. - 6:00 p.m. and Saturday, 9:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Obtaining a library card is easy, it requires just one form of I.D. and offers a lifetime of information!

Attendance

New York employees please remember to submit your attendance records to Human Resources in New York, located on the 7th floor. Any questions regarding attendance (i.e. vacation days, floating holidays, sick days, etc.) please call Gabrielle Ulloa on extension 5271.

Harborside and Washington employees should submit their attendance records to Human Resources in New Jersey.

Also, to prevent any confusion, when sending inter-office mail to Human Resources, please specify whether it is for New York or New Jersey.

No Smoking!

Effective December 1, 1992, Harborside Financial Center will become a non-smoking building. Smoking will be prohibited in any common area of the building, including the promenade, atrium, core bathrooms, corridors, interior and exterior plazas. Appropriate signs will be posted both outside the entrances and inside the building. In the event someone is smoking in a prohibited area, the Harborside security personnel will ask the person to stop.

Don't Forget...

...Tuesday, November 3 is Election Day. Your vote counts!!

According to Nation's Business, some people are so disenchanted with government they think their vote is meaningless. Subscribers to the "none-of-the-above" way of thinking are tired of hearing about the national debt and may think that no one on the ballot can effectively deal with the issues.

Turning away from government is not the way to make government respond. Working people want a responsible Congress, but they must act to achieve that goal. All working people have a stake in preservation of the enterprise system, and tax burdens.

When you vote, you decide what kind of spending, regulatory, energy, trade and other policies will come from the election. The battles of public policy are basically won or lost in the voting booth rather than in Congress later on. Vote for a representative who believes as you do.
