D.C. Tie-Line From Harborside Effective immediately, the tie-line from Harborside to Washington, D.C. has been changed from six (6) to four (4). However, for a short period of time both tie-line numbers will work. Please begin using the new tie-line number four (4) immediately to get yourself acquainted with the new number.

In Memoriam It is with regret that we inform you that Bill Bruschi, a retired executive and member of the Institute's "25-Year Club", passed away earlier this month. Bill joined the Examinations Division as Assistant Director of Education in December, 1959 and became Director in September of 1965. He was promoted to Vice President-Technical in 1971, and then to Vice President-Review & Regulation in 1979.

Weight Watchers Weight Watchers has extended their free registration offer through this Friday, October 30th. In order to take advantage of this offer, NJ employees interested should bring a check for $55 payable to Weight Watchers to Joanne Lindstrom in Human Resources-NJ by Friday. The $55 represents half of the total cost for the 10-week At-Work program; the other half will be paid by the Institute.

NY employees can attend weekly meetings at a Weight Watchers facility and should register (at the facility) by Friday, October 30th in order to avoid the usual $10 registration fee. The Institute will pay half of the cost for 10 meetings only; request reimbursement by sending a copy of your Weight Watchers attendance book to Joanne Lindstrom in Human Resources-NJ. NOTE: DO NOT bring a check to Gaby Ulloa in Human Resources-NY (we goofed in last week's Inside).

If you have any questions, please call Joanne Lindstrom on X3353.
