Special Olympics

Special Olympics International is the world's largest organization providing year-round training and competition for individuals with mental retardation eight years of age and older.

It's that time of year again. The New York Special Olympics is seeking volunteers for their 1994 Metro Tournament which will be held on Sunday, June 12, 1994 from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at St. John's University in Jamaica, Queens. About 1,000 Olympians are expected to participate in track, volleyball, gymnastics, swimming and powerlifting.

Volunteers are needed to assist the athletes during the day of the event. Friends and family are welcome to be volunteers. Due to the large number of volunteers attending this event, the Special Olympics requires all volunteers to attend a one-hour orientation session the week before the Tournament.

If you are interested in being a volunteer for the Tournament, please contact Jackie Walker at ext. 6033 before May 20.

Reminder...

"Take Our Daughter's To Work Day" is this Thursday, April 28.

Now Available...

...in the Harborside Luncheon Club is Philadelphia Light Cream Cheese.

Exchange Place Bus Guides

Exchange Place, one of the metropolitan area's most accessible locations, is now the home to many of New Jersey's largest corporations and financial services companies. Workers and visitors to the Hudson River Waterfront can reach this destination conveniently from locations outside the area using a variety of public transit options, including direct bus service.

Under separate cover, Harborside staff will receive the NJ Department of Transportation Exchange Place Bus Guide. The Exchange Place area is serviced by 15 local and suburban bus line operated by NJ Transit and independent bus operators. The Exchange Place Bus Guide provides direct bus service information, bus/rail fare options and a map which shows the bus routes to Jersey City.

Secretaries Week

This week we honor the dedication of Professional Secretaries. Secretaries Day is on Wednesday, April 27.
