

3-1940

Authors of Articles in this Issue

American Institute of Accountants

Follow this and additional works at: <https://egrove.olemiss.edu/jofa>

Part of the Accounting Commons

---

Recommended Citation

American Institute of Accountants (1940) "Authors of Articles in this Issue," Journal of Accountancy. Vol. 69: Iss. 3, Article 16.

Available at: <https://egrove.olemiss.edu/jofa/vol69/iss3/16>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Archival Digital Accounting Collection at eGrove. It has been accepted for inclusion in Journal of Accountancy by an authorized editor of eGrove. For more information, please contact egrove@olemiss.edu.

AUTHORS OF ARTICLES IN THIS ISSUE

ELLEN L. EASTMAN, author of "Tax Computation in an Estate with a Charitable Remainder," is a partner of Leffler and Eastman, New York, N. Y. She is a certified public accountant of Maine and New York, and a member of the New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants and of the American Institute of Accountants. During the period 1918 to 1930 Mrs. Eastman practised under her own name in Portland and Sanford, Maine, and since 1930 she has been in public practice in New York.

NORMAN J. LENHART, who contributes one of the two opinions on "Single-Purpose Statements" published in this issue, is a partner of Lybrand, Ross Bros. & Montgomery, New York, N. Y. Mr. Lenhart received the A.B. degree in 1916 from the University of Illinois and has been with his present firm since 1919. He is a certified public accountant of Illinois, Pennsylvania, and New York, and a member of the New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants and the American Institute of Accountants. He has served on a number of Institute committees, and is at present a member of the special committee on inventories and of the board of examiners.

LLOYD MOREY, author of "Federal Accounting and Reporting," is professor of accounting and controller of the University of Illinois. He received the A.B. degree from the University of Illinois in 1911. Professor Morey is a certified public accountant of Illinois and has been a member of the Illinois Society of Certified Public Accountants since 1916. A member of the American Institute of Accountants since 1930, he has served on the Institute's special committee on governmental accounting since 1933, and is at present chairman. Professor Morey is vice chairman of the National Committee on Municipal Accounting and has been chief consultant on educational finance for the American Council on Education since 1935. He is well known as the author of many books and magazine articles on municipal and governmental accounting.

EUGENE NOLAN, author of "Accounting for the Admissions and Retirements of Partners," has been an internal-revenue agent since 1934. Mr. Nolan entered the field of accountancy only recently. He received the B.C.S. degree in 1936 from The Strayer College of Accountancy in Washington, D. C., and the M.C.S. degree in 1937.

HOMER N. SWEET, author of "Amended Requirements for Financial Statements Prescribed by the Securities and Exchange Commission in Regulation S-X," is a partner of Lybrand, Ross Bros. & Montgomery, Boston, Mass. Mr. Sweet is a graduate of Brown University. He is a certified public accountant of Michigan, New York, Pennsylvania, and Massachusetts, and a member of the Massachusetts Society of Certified Public Accountants. Mr. Sweet has been a member of the American Institute of Accountants since 1915 and has served on a number of its committees, including the committees on federal legislation, meetings, coöperation with bankers, and federal corporation law. At present he is chairman of the Institute's special committee on coöperation with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

EDWARD B. WILCOX, who contributes one of the two opinions on "Single-Purpose Statements" published in this issue, is a partner of Edward Gore & Co., Chicago, Ill. Mr. Wilcox has been in the practice of accountancy since his graduation from Northwestern University in 1916. He is a certified public accountant of Illinois and a past president of the Illinois Society of Certified Public Accountants. He has been a member of the American Institute of Accountants since 1927, and has served on a number of its committees. He is at present a member of council, the committee on professional ethics, and the special committees on disciplinary procedure and coöperation with Bar Association.