Announcing...

...the AICPA Telecom Hotline! Now, the New York, Harborside and Washington staff have one special priority number to call for all telecom needs. Should you experience problems with the AT&T telephone hardware or its features, just dial ext. 3800 for help. Also, you can call the number for new extensions or to make changes to existing extensions in the event you relocate from one area to another.

"Brown Bag"
Lunch

As a reminder, the second "brown bag" luncheon will be held in New York on Tuesday, August 8 in the New York office. Listed below are the names of the employees who are being asked to attend the luncheon. If you are not attending this luncheon, we encourage you to seek out those whose names are listed below and share with them your ideas and feedback. This feedback, in turn, can be discussed with Barry at the meeting. If you have any questions regarding the luncheon, please contact Human Resources.

NATWEST
Information

Staff members who take the opportunity to bank with NATWEST through the Institute's direct deposit system not only benefit from a free checking account but also a number of other services.

Judy McCord, a NATWEST Branch Manager will be in the New Jersey office on Thursday, August 10th, in Conference Room 3, at 12 noon to give a short presentation about the services NATWEST provides, including a $100 discount on mortgage closing costs, free travelers' checks, bank by phone, and loans with automatic repayment from your checking account.

On site the NATWEST representatives will be able to open a free checking account and present you with an ATM card, help you complete applications for safe deposit boxes (50% discount), loans, overdraft protection and certificates of deposit.

Staff members who are going to open an account will need their AICPA ID card.

The same program will be presented in the New York office on Thursday, August 24th from 1:00 p.m. - 2:00 p.m. in Conference Room D.
