Libraries' Wish List

Winter 2013 wish list for University Libraries

NOVEMBER 19, 2013 BY UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES

1.) Book presses

Large and medium book presses are needed in the library preservation room to hold books in place while glue or adhesive sets. The J.D. Williams Library has a large collection of damaged books that could be repaired with the help of these presses.

Book press, large: $295

Book press, medium: $225

2.) Exercise bikes

Academic libraries have begun to offer stationary exercise bikes for students to use during study breaks, and students have responded enthusiastically to the idea.

Bike: $400 each

3.) JSTOR collection – Arts and Sciences IV

This collection has a strong focus on the professions of business, education and law, and also includes titles in psychology and public policy and administration. Among the titles are highly influential and diverse publications from leading professional organizations in the fields of business and social sciences. Notable titles: Academy of Management Journal, Milbank Quarterly, Academy of Management Review, Public Administration Review, University of Pennsylvania Law Review.

Cost: $15,000 (one-time purchase fee); $5,000 (annual fee)

Reuters: Keep an Eye on the Money Supply

U.S. inflation roller coaster prompts fresh look at long-ignored money supply By Michael S. Derby NEW YORK – The amount of money sloshing around the U.S. economy shrank last year for the first time on record, a development that some economists believe bolsters the case for U.S. inflation pressures continuing to abate. The Federal Reserve's
