Dearest Hubert:-

Got your letter two or three days ago, and glad to hear. Rufus went to Coffeyville yesterday and Ruth wanted me to spend the night with her. She is still coughing and going to the Dr. She had J. bone steaks and green salad ^{for supper.} and the maid came and cooked the breakfast.

The package came from the foundation and I was fixing to ^{send} the receipt, but thought you might want to look it over; the package, to see if everything was there. - so I'm holding until you come.

There is a strong wind from the south; it must be a storm on the coast.

Must quit now & get this in the mail.

Lots of love
